

Need another word that means the same as "afford"? Find 26 synonyms and 30 related words for "afford" in this overview.

Table Of Contents:

- Afford as a Verb
- Definitions of "Afford" as a verb
- Synonyms of "Afford" as a verb (26 Words)
- Usage Examples of "Afford" as a verb
- Associations of "Afford" (30 Words)

The synonyms of "Afford" are: give, yield, open, pay for, bear the expense of, meet the expense of, spare the price of, have the money for, be rich enough for, have the wherewithal for, bear, sustain, stand, carry, provide, supply, present, purvey, make available, offer, impart, bestow, furnish, render, grant, produce

Afford as a Verb

Definitions of "Afford" as a verb

According to the Oxford Dictionary of English, "afford" as a verb can have the following definitions:

- Be able to do something without risk of adverse consequences.
- Be the cause or source of.
- Have enough money to pay for.
- Afford access to.
- Be able to spare or give up.
- Have (a resource such as money or time) available or to spare.
- Have the financial means to do something or buy something.
- Provide or supply (an opportunity or facility.

Synonyms of "Afford" as a verb (26 Words)

be rich enough for Be identical to; be someone or something.

bearContain or hold; have within.

Steamboats bear the traveller out of Kerrerra Sound.

bear the expense of Cause to be born.

bestow Bestow a quality on.

Bestow an honor on someone.

Take further or advance.

You must carry your camping gear.

furnish Provide or equip with furniture.

She was able to furnish me with details of the incident.

Give as medicine.

give

Milk is sometimes added to give a richer cheese.

Allow to have. grant

Grant a privilege.

have the money for

Have a personal or business relationship with someone.

have the wherewithal

for Organize or be responsible for.

Transmit (knowledge or skills.

The teachers imparted a great deal of knowledge to their impart pupils.

make available Cause to be enjoyable or pleasurable.

meet the expense of Experience as a reaction.

Present or proffer something for someone to accept or reject as offer desired.

Villagers have gone to offer prayers for the souls of the sailors.

Become open.

open Do not open with fewer than twelve points.

Make a compensation for. pay for Present somebody with something usually to accuse or criticize. present

We cannot represent this knowledge to our formal reason.

(of a place or process) yield, grow, or supply. produce

Produce a movie.

Make a possibility or provide opportunity for permit to be provide attainable or cause to remain.

New qualifications must provide for changes in technology.

Spread or promote (an idea, view, etc.

purvey We didn t want to purvey gloom and doom.

Give up surrender.

Render thanks.

spare the price of Save or relieve from an experience or action.

Withstand the force of something. stand

I can t stand brandy.

Make (something needed or wanted) available to someone;

supply provide.

render

When she died no one could supply her place.

Bear (the weight of an object) without breaking or falling. sustain

The money will sustain our good cause.

Give or supply.

vield He yielded to the demands of his partners.

Usage Examples of "Afford" as a verb

- Our meeting afforded much interesting information.
- We could never have afforded to heat the place.
- Only aristocrats could afford to stoop to such practices.
- The rooftop terrace affords beautiful views.
- They were afforded the luxury of bed and breakfast.
- The best that I could afford was a first-floor room.
- I can't afford to spend two hours with this person.
- It was taking up more time than he could afford.

Associations of "Afford" (30 Words)

Distribute (resources or duties) for a particular purpose.

allocate In past years we didn t allocate enough funds to infrastructure maintenance.

amortization A period in which a debt is reduced or paid off by regular payments. 75 of the mortgages have an amortization of 25 years or less.

Give, especially as an honor or reward. award

The award of an honorary doctorate.

Bestow a quality on. bestow

The office was bestowed on him by the monarch of this realm.

bestowal A gift that is bestowed or conferred.

Relinquish possession or control over. cede

In 1874 the islands were ceded to Britain.

concession The right, given by a company, to sell goods, especially in a particular place.

Railcard holders can obtain concessions.

Contribute to some cause.

contribute The government imposed a tax on fuels which contributed to global warming.

A voluntary gift (as of money or service or ideas) made to some worthwhile donation cause.

The donation of carpets chairs and cutlery.

empower

Give or delegate power or authority to.

Members are empowered to audit the accounts of limited companies.

enable Render capable or able for some task.

This skill will enable you to find a job on Wall Street.

endow Furnish with an endowment.

The country is well endowed with mineral resources.

endowment The capital that provides income for an institution.

His natural endowments were his height and intelligence.

endue Give qualities or abilities to.

Our sight would be endued with a far greater sharpness.

entitle Give (something) a particular title.

A satire entitled The Rise of the Meritocracy.

The management of money and credit and banking and investments.

The health service is financed almost entirely by the taxpayer.

Give food to.

This is a place that will not improve with time I give it three weeks.

grant A right or privilege that has been granted.

Her request was granted.

Make (information) known.

impart Shiitake mushrooms impart a wonderfully woody flavour to the salad.

invest Make an investment.

The passage of time has invested the words with an unintended humour.

Someone honored for great achievements; figuratively someone crowned laureate with a laurel wreath.

A Nobel laureate.

Have certain characteristics of qualities for something; be open or lend vulnerable to.

Banks lend only to their current account customers.

mortgage A deed effecting a mortgage.

A 60 000 mortgage.

offering The verbal act of offering.

Offerings during Lent will always be gratefully received.

A liability account showing how much is owed for goods and services payable purchased on credit.

A note payable on demand.

presentation A visual representation of something.

Cesarean sections are sometimes the result of abnormal presentations.

Make a possibility or provide opportunity for permit to be attainable or provide cause to remain.

New qualifications must provide for changes in technology.

situation The location and surroundings of a place.

Found herself in a very fortunate situation.

sponsorship The position of being a sponsor.

The company s sponsorship of the tournament.

yield Move in order to make room for someone for something.

I yielded the point.

