

Need another word that means the same as "alienation"? Find 18 synonyms and 30 related words for "alienation" in this overview.

Table Of Contents:

- Alienation as a Noun
- Definitions of "Alienation" as a noun
- Synonyms of "Alienation" as a noun (18 Words)
- Usage Examples of "Alienation" as a noun
- Associations of "Alienation" (30 Words)

The synonyms of "Alienation" are: estrangement, disaffection, isolation, detachment, distance, separation, severance, parting, division, divorce, cutting off, turning away, withdrawal, transfer, conveyance, passing on, handing over, devolution

Alienation as a Noun

Definitions of "Alienation" as a noun

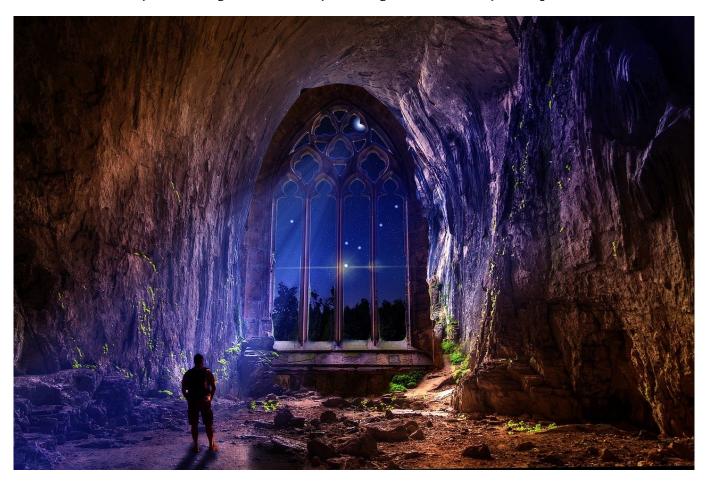

According to the Oxford Dictionary of English, "alienation" as a noun can have the following definitions:

- (law) the voluntary and absolute transfer of title and possession of real property from one person to another.
- Separation resulting from hostility.
- The state or experience of being alienated.
- (in Marxist theory) a condition of workers in a capitalist economy, resulting from a lack of identity with the products of their labour and a sense of being controlled or exploited.
- A state of depersonalization or loss of identity in which the self seems unreal, thought to be caused by difficulties in relating to society and the resulting prolonged inhibition of emotion.
- The transfer of the ownership of property rights.
- The voluntary and absolute transfer of title and possession of real property from one person to another.
- An effect sought by some dramatists, whereby the audience remains objective and does not identify with the actors.

- The feeling of being alienated from other people.
- The action of alienating; the action of causing to become unfriendly.

Synonyms of "Alienation" as a noun (18 Words)

The action of making an idea, feeling, or impression known or understandable to someone.

conveyance

A busy centre for the conveyance of agricultural produce from the Billingshurst area.

cutting off The act of diluting something.

detachment Coming apart.

He felt a sense of detachment from what was going on.

The process of declining from a higher to a lower level of effective power or vitality or essential quality.

devolution The devolution of the gentlemanly ideal into a glorification of drunkenness.

Disloyalty to the government or to established authority. disaffection

The widespread disaffection of the troops.

The distance from the winning post which a horse must have reached when the winner finishes in order to qualify for a subsequent heat. distance

He stormed home by a distance in the Handicap Chase.

Biology a group of organisms forming a subdivision of a larger category. division

A growing sense of division between north and south.

The legal dissolution of a marriage. divorce Her divorce from her first husband.

The fact of no longer living with one's spouse or partner; separation. estrangement A parent s rights in the event of divorce or estrangement.

handing over The cards held in a card game by a given player at any given time.

A state of separation between persons or groups. isolation

Isolation from family and friends may also contribute to anxiety.

The act of departing politely.

parting His hair was dark with a side parting.

passing on The end of something.

The distance between things. separation

The separation of church and state.

The action of ending a connection or relationship. severance

The severance and disestablishment of the Irish Church.

A small coloured picture or design on paper which can be transferred to transfer another surface by being pressed or heated.

A transfer of wealth to the EU s poorer nations.

turning away The act of turning away or in the opposite direction.

The act of withdrawing. withdrawal

The nurse was expert at the withdrawal of blood.

Usage Examples of "Alienation" as a noun

- Unemployment may generate a sense of political alienation.
- The power of alienation is an essential ingredient of ownership.
- A sense of alienation from our environment.
- Most leases contain restrictions against alienation.

Associations of "Alienation" (30 Words)

alienate Transfer ownership of (property rights) to another person or group.

An urban environment which would alienate its inhabitants.

alone Having no help or participation from others.

Cannot live by bread alone.

Cause (someone) to become hostile or angry.

Two other drugs antagonized the antidepressant like effect.

boredomThe feeling of being bored by something tedious.

I ll die of boredom if I live that long.

complacentContented to a fault with oneself or one's actions. You can t afford to be complacent about security.

Connect (two electrical components) using electromagnetic induction, couple electrostatic charge, or an optical link.

Just a couple more questions.

detachment. The state of being isolated or detached.

He felt a sense of detachment from what was going on.

Part; cease or break association with.

dissociate These compounds are dissociated by solar radiation to yield atoms of chlorine.

divorce Get a divorce formally terminate a marriage.

Her divorce from her first husband.

estrange Cause (someone) to be no longer on friendly terms with someone.

He became estranged from his father.

estrangement

The feeling of being alienated from other people.

A parent s rights in the event of divorce or estrangement.

insular Lacking contact with other people.

People living restricted and sometimes insular existences.

isolate A culture of microorganisms isolated for study.

Social isolates often become careless of their own welfare.

isolated Under forced isolation especially for health reasons.

Isolated incidents of student unrest.

An instance of isolating something, especially a compound or isolation microorganism.

Isolation from family and friends may also contribute to anxiety.

In a state of being alone in solitary isolation.

Feelings of depression and loneliness.

A state in which one is not observed or disturbed by other people.

She returned to the privacy of her own home.

Place a person or animal in guarantine in order to prevent the spread of quarantine an infectious disease.

I quarantine all new fish for one month.

remote A remote control device.

Chances of a lasting peace became even more remote.

schism Division of a group into opposing factions.

The widening schism between Church leaders and politicians.

seclude Keep (someone) away from other people.

I secluded myself up here for a life of study and meditation.

seclusion The act of secluding yourself from others.

They enjoyed ten days of peace and seclusion.

Someone who is or has been segregated.

segregateThis neighborhood is segregated.

A separately printed article that originally appeared in a larger separate publication.

Girls and boys in separate classes.

The social act of separating or parting company.

Religion involved the separation of the sacred and the profane.

Form a chelate or other stable compound with (an ion, atom, or molecule) so that it is no longer available for reactions.

sequesterIf the budget deal hadn t gone through there would have been a sequester of at least 100 billion.

The act of severing.

The severance and disestablishment of the Irish Church.

sole Put a new sole on.

The join between the upper and the sole.

solitude A lonely or uninhabited place.

The battle to preserve beloved solitudes flared up all over the country.

underpopulated Having a lower population density than normal or desirable. The richly endowed but underpopulated Ivory Coast.

