

Need another word that means the same as "banker"? Find 17 synonyms and 30 related words for "banker" in this overview.

Table Of Contents:

- Banker as a Noun
- Definitions of "Banker" as a noun
- Synonyms of "Banker" as a noun (17 Words)
- Usage Examples of "Banker" as a noun
- Associations of "Banker" (30 Words)

The synonyms of "Banker" are: investor, speculator, capitalist, industrialist, tycoon, magnate, business person, businessman, businesswoman, stockbroker, clerk, bank clerk, teller, bank teller, treasurer, bursar, purser

Banker as a Noun

Definitions of "Banker" as a noun

According to the Oxford Dictionary of English, "banker" as a noun can have the following definitions:

- The person in charge of the bank in a gambling game.
- A financier who owns or is an executive in a bank.
- A supposedly certain bet.
- A result forecast identically (while other forecasts differ) in several football-pool entries on one coupon.
- The person running the table, controlling play, or acting as dealer in some gambling or board games.
- A person who manages or owns a bank or group of banks.

Synonyms of "Banker" as a noun (17 Words)

bank clerkA financial institution that accepts deposits and channels the money into lending activities.

bank teller An arrangement of similar objects in a row or in tiers.

bursar A student who holds a bursary.

business person An immediate objective.

businessman A person engaged in commercial or industrial business (especially an owner or executive.

businesswoman A female businessperson.

A successful and self reliant businesswoman.

capitalist

A person who invests capital in a business (especially a large business.

The creation of the factory system by nineteenth century capitalists.

clerk A literate or scholarly person.

A wages clerk.

industrialist A person involved in the ownership and management of industry.

The exploitation of child labour by nineteenth century industrialists.

A person or organization that puts money into financial schemes, investor property, etc. with the expectation of achieving a profit.

Foreign investors in the British commercial property sector.

magnate A very wealthy or powerful businessman.

A property magnate.

purser An officer on a ship who keeps the accounts, especially the head steward on a passenger vessel.

A person who forms a theory or conjecture about a subject without firm speculator evidence.

Speculators about the nature of the cosmos.

stockbroker An agent in the buying and selling of stocks and bonds.

teller A cashpoint machine.

A foul mouthed teller of lies.

treasurer The head of the Exchequer.

tycoon A very wealthy or powerful businessman.

A newspaper tycoon.

Usage Examples of "Banker" as a noun

ullet The horse should be a banker for him in the Members' race.

Associations of "Banker" (30 Words)

accountant A person whose job is to keep, inspect, and analyse financial accounts.

The occupation of maintaining and auditing records and preparing accounting financial reports for a business.

actuarial

They send me an accounting every month.

Relating to actuaries or their work of compiling and analysing statistics to calculate insurance risks and premiums.

An actuarial consulting firm.

administrator Someone who manages a government agency or department.

Hospital administrators.

Reduce or pay off (a debt) with regular payments.

Someone who listens attentively.

Lands amortized without licence.

auditor
So low was Deems s voice that his auditors had to give it close attention.

A person whose job is to keep records of the financial affairs of a bookkeeper business.

The business had grown enough to justify hiring a bookkeeper.

Excellent; outstanding.

The boss characters provide more than enough challenge.

bursar A student who holds a bursary.

A person handling payments and receipts in a shop, bank, or business.

Cashier the literal sense of this word.

controller A person or thing that directs or regulates something.

The speed controller on his turntable was not working properly.

economist An expert in economics.

A person or firm that employs workers.

employer

The National Health Service was the largest employer in Europe.

financial The finances or financial situation of an organization or individual.

An independent financial adviser.

(in a law court) a person who presides over a jury and speaks on its foreman behalf.

If you want to leave early you have to ask the foreman.

fund Place or store up in a fund for accumulation.

Fund a medical care plan.

installment A part of a published serial.

The act of investing; laying out money or capital in an enterprise with the investment expectation of profit.

This job calls for the investment of some hard thinking.

manager Someone who controls resources and expenditures.

She was a good manager and could make a meal out of nothing.

mortgage

The amount of money borrowed in a mortgage.

A 60 000 mortgage.

A lightweight consumer electronic device that looks like a hand-held computer but instead performs specific tasks; can serve as a diary or a organizer personal database or a telephone or an alarm clock etc.

The organizers of the demonstration.

A body of people engaged in a particular profession.

After profession she taught in Maidenhead.

rich Marked by richness and fullness of flavor.

Every day the split between the rich and the poor widens.

secretary A desk used for writing.

She was secretary to David Wilby MP.

A member of the legal profession qualified to deal with conveyancing the drawing up of wills and other legal matters A solicitor may also instruct barristers and represent clients in some courts.

She had been a telephone solicitor for a Chicago newspaper.

storekeeper A shopkeeper.

(in the US) a high-ranking official, especially the chief of a police superintendent department.

The superintendent registrar.

Observe and direct the work of (someone.

Protect by insurance.

The sergeant left to supervise the loading of the lorries.

treasurer The head of the Exchequer.

underwrite

They were willing to underwrite in part the construction of a ship.

