

Need another word that means the same as "come to terms"? Find 30 related words for "come to terms" in this overview.

Table Of Contents:

• Associations of "Come to terms" (30 Words)

Associations of "Come to terms" (30 Words)

Reach a destination arrive by movement or progress.

He will feel jealous when a new baby arrives.

The part of a garment that covers the back of your body.

Back into the driveway.

Recover one's health and strength over a period of time after an illness or convalesce medical treatment.

He spent eight months convalescing after the stroke.

Take vengeance on or get even.

Her childish behavior really get to me.

here Being here now. Here s my brother.

landing The act of coming down to the earth (or other surface.

His landing on his feet was catlike.

The income or profit arising from such transactions as the sale of land or other property.

phenomenon The object of a person's perception.

The band was a pop phenomenon just for their sales figures alone.

recover Get or find back recover the use of.

The economy has begun to recover.

The action or process of regaining possession or control of something stolen or lost.

recovery

I have my heel below the pedal during the power stroke and above it during recovery.

Recover from illness or exertion.

Christmas is a time to recuperate.

Get or find back; recover the use of.

He soon regained his composure.

rejoin Answer back.

The stone had been cracked and crudely rejoined.

rejuvenation The act of restoring to a more youthful condition.

Experts in the art of facial rejuvenation.

renewal An instance of resuming something after an interruption.

The need for urban renewal.

renovation The state of being restored to its former good condition.

Older churches underwent major renovations.

requiteRespond to (love or affection.
She did not requite his love.

resilience An occurrence of rebounding or springing back.

The often remarkable resilience of so many British institutions.

restitution Getting something back again.

Restitution of the damaged mucosa.

The restoration of the Bourbon monarchy in France in 1814 following the restoration fall of Napoleon Louis XVIII was recalled from exile by Talleyrand.

The restoration of Andrew s sight.

restore Restore by replacing a part or putting together what is torn or broken.

The week at the spa restored me.

The act of reviving a person and returning them to consciousness.

resuscitation Although he was apparently drowned resuscitation was accomplished by artificial respiration.

retrace Go back over (the same route that one has just taken.

He began to retrace his steps to the station car park.

retrieval The act of regaining or saving something lost (or in danger of becoming lost.

My retrieval of people s names is very poor.

retrieve Go for and bring back.

He ruined himself beyond retrieve.

return A coming to or returning home.

A return ticket to the airport.

reunite Have a reunion; unite again.

The three friends reunited in 1959.

revitalize Restore strength.

This food revitalized the patient.

A reawakening of religious fervour, especially by means of evangelistic revival meetings.

A revival of a neglected play by Moliere.

treaty

A written agreement between two states or sovereigns. The two Presidents signed a ten year treaty of solidarity.