

Need another word that means the same as "depress"? Find 37 synonyms and 30 related words for "depress" in this overview.

Table Of Contents:

- Depress as a Verb
- Definitions of "Depress" as a verb
- Synonyms of "Depress" as a verb (37 Words)
- Usage Examples of "Depress" as a verb
- Associations of "Depress" (30 Words)

The synonyms of "Depress" are: lower, press down, cast down, deject, demoralise, demoralize, dismay, dispirit, get down, make sad, sadden, make unhappy, make gloomy, make despondent, slow down, slow up, reduce, weaken, sap, devitalize, impair, deflate, cut, cheapen, put down, keep down, mark down, discount, depreciate, devalue, diminish, downgrade, push, push down, press, exert pressure on, hold down

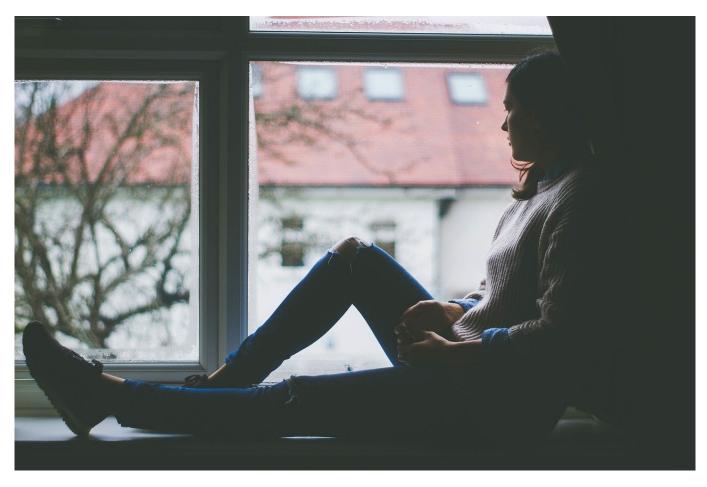

Depress as a Verb

Definitions of "Depress" as a verb

According to the Oxford Dictionary of English, "depress" as a verb can have the following definitions:

- Lower someone's spirits; make downhearted.
- Lessen the activity or force of.
- Make (someone) feel utterly dispirited or dejected.
- Cause to drop or sink.
- Reduce the level or strength of activity in (something, especially an economic or biological system.
- Lower (prices or markets.
- Push or pull (something) down into a lower position.
- Press down.

Synonyms of "Depress" as a verb (37 Words)

cast down Form by pouring (e.g., wax or hot metal) into a cast or mold.

cheapen Degrade.

The depreciation of the dollar would cheapen US exports.

cut Cut down on make a reduction in.

Ted was cutting the lawn.

deflateBecome deflated or flaccid as by losing air.

Her anger was deflated.

dejectLower someone's spirits; make downhearted.

Nothing dejects a trader like the interruption of his profits.

demoralise Corrupt morally or by intemperance or sensuality.

demoralize Corrupt the morals of (someone.

The bad state of her child s health demoralizes her.

depreciateLower the value of something.

The latest cars will depreciate heavily in the first year.

devalue Remove the value from; deprive of its value.

The tear devalues the painting.

devitalize Sap of life or energy.

An effective product to treat devitalized skin.

diminish Lessen the authority, dignity, or reputation of.

The pain will gradually diminish.

discountBar from attention or consideration.

A product may carry a price which cannot easily be discounted.

dismay

Cause (someone) to feel concern and distress.

They were dismayed by the U turn in policy.

dispirit Lower someone's spirits; make downhearted.

The army was dispirited by the uncomfortable winter conditions.

Rate lower; lower in value or esteem.

downgrade Some jobs had gradually been downgraded from skilled to semi skilled.

exert pressure on Make a great effort at a mental or physical task.

get down Move into a desired direction of discourse.

hold down Have as a major characteristic.

impair

Weaken or damage (something, especially a faculty or function.

A noisy job could permanently impair their hearing.

keep down Retain possession of.

Set lower.

Lower expectations.

make despondent Favor the development of. make gloomy Constitute the essence of.

make sad Engage in.

make unhappy Carry out or commit.

mark down

Be a distinctive feature, attribute, or trait; sometimes in a very positive sense.

pressPress and smooth with a heated iron.

The small seeds of sesame are chiefly pressed for their oil.

press down

Exert oneself continuously, vigorously, or obtrusively to gain an end or engage in a crusade for a certain cause or person; be an advocate for.

Make strenuous pushing movements during birth to expel the baby.

Lydia pushed the door shut.

push down Press, drive, or impel (someone) to action or completion of an action.

put down Make an investment.

reduce Reduce in scope while retaining essential elements.

Reduce your daily fat intake.

sadden Make unhappy.

I was saddened to see their lack of commitment.

Drain someone of (strength or power.

Our energy is being sapped by bureaucrats and politicians.

slow downslow upLose velocity; move more slowly.

weaken Destroy property or hinder normal operations.

His resistance had weakened.

Usage Examples of "Depress" as a verb

- These news depressed her.
- Depress the lever.
- Fear of inflation in America depressed bond markets.
- The rising inflation depressed the economy.
- That first day at school depressed me.
- The lack of rain had depressed the water level in the reservoir.
- Alcohol depresses the nervous system.
- The glut of oil depressed gas prices.

Associations of "Depress" (30 Words)

abase

Behave in a way that belittles or degrades (someone. I watched my colleagues abasing themselves before the board of trustees.

abate Become less in amount or intensity.

The storm abated.

adulterate Render (something) poorer in quality by adding another substance.

The brewer is said to adulterate his beer.

consternation Fear resulting from the awareness of danger. To her consternation her car wouldn t start.

Deprive someone of (something.

curtail Curtail drinking in school.

Cause to lose courage.

daunt

Some people are daunted by technology.

Corrupt debase or make impure by adding a foreign or inferior debase substance often by replacing valuable ingredients with inferior ones.

War debases people.

decrement The ratio of the amplitudes in successive cycles of a damped oscillation.

The instruction decrements the accumulator by one.

demoralize Corrupt the morals of (someone.

The boss s behavior demoralized everyone in the office.

depraveMake (someone) immoral or wicked.

This book would deprave and corrupt young children.

despondLose confidence or hope; become dejected.

I thought it right not to let my young lady despond.

Discourage (someone) from doing something by instilling doubt or fear of the consequences.

deter

Strategists think not only about how to deter war but about how war might occur.

Deprive of courage or hope take away hope from cause to feel discourage discouraged.

We should discourage this practice among our youth.

The feeling of despair in the face of obstacles.

The discouragement of crime.

dishearten Cause (someone) to lose determination or confidence.

The farmer was disheartened by the damage to his crops.

dismayFear resulting from the awareness of danger.

They were dismayed by the U turn in policy.

Turn away from by persuasion.

dissuade

Negative campaigning will only dissuade people.

down

A chance for a team to advance the ball ending when the ball carrier is tackled or the ball becomes out of play A team must advance at least ten yards in a series of four downs in order to keep possession.

He downed a 20 foot putt for victory.

An instance of reducing someone or something's rank, status, or level of downgrade importance.

Some jobs had gradually been downgraded from skilled to semi skilled.

frustrationA feeling of annoyance at being hindered or criticized.

Her constant complaints were the main source of his frustration.

Decrease in size, extent, or range.

The years have lessened the gap in age between us.

Set lower.

Lower Lower a rating.

miserable (of a person) wretchedly unhappy or uncomfortable.

Almost depleted his miserable store of dried beans.

preclude (of a situation or condition) prevent someone from doing something.

His difficulties preclude him from leading a normal life.

retrench Reduce (something) in extent or quantity.

As a result of the recession the company retrenched.

(of a company or industry) in a poor economic state.

rundown A rundown in the business would be a devastating blow to the local economy.

Become scared.

I was scared stiff.

An allowance made for reduction in the takings of a business due to shrinkage wastage or theft.

The material lost 2 inches per yard in shrinkage.

Fail or decline substantially.

She slumped against the cushions.

one stamped against the cushion weaken Lessen the strength of.

The fever weakened his body.

