Need another word that means the same as "discrete"? Find 9 synonyms and 30 related words for "discrete" in this overview.

Table Of Contents:

- Discrete as an Adjective
- Definitions of "Discrete" as an adjective
- Synonyms of "Discrete" as an adjective (9 Words)
- Usage Examples of "Discrete" as an adjective
- Associations of "Discrete" (30 Words)

The synonyms of "Discrete" are: distinct, separate, individual, detached, unattached, disconnected, discontinuous, disjunct, disjoined

Discrete as an Adjective

Definitions of "Discrete" as an adjective

According to the Oxford Dictionary of English, "discrete" as an adjective can have the following definitions:

- Constituting a separate entity or part.
- Individually separate and distinct.

GRAMMARTOP

Synonyms of "Discrete" as an adjective (9 Words)

detached Being or feeling set or kept apart from others. A detached part.
Music marked by or composed of disconnected parts or sounds cut short disconnected crisply.
Disconnected fragments of a story.
discontinuous Having intervals or gaps.
Discontinuous applause.
disjoined Have the connection undone; having become separate.
disjunct Disjoined and distinct from one another.
Disjunct distribution of king crabs.

distinctindividual

Recognizable; marked.
Management had interests quite distinct from those of their employees.
Separate and distinct from others of the same kind.
Please mark the individual pages.
separate

unattached

Have the connection undone having become separate. Melt the white and plain chocolate in separate bowls. (of animals) able to swim about; not attached.
Local people unattached to any organization.

Usage Examples of "Discrete" as an adjective

- Speech sounds are produced as a continuous sound signal rather than discrete units.
- A government with three discrete divisions.

GRAMMARTOP

Associations of "Discrete" (30 Words)

|  | Point out or describe the resemblances with; liken to.  Individual schools compared their facilities with those of others in the  area. |
| :--- | :--- |
| comflicting | In disagreement- John Morley.  There are conflicting accounts of what occurred. |
| contradiction | The speech act of contradicting someone.  The second sentence appears to be in flat contradiction of the first. |
| contrast | The perceptual effect of the juxtaposition of very different colors.  Careful adjustment of the contrast to suit the prevailing light is critical. | contrastingly In a contrasting manner.

| diametrical | (of opposites) complete; absolute. Diametrical or opposite points of view. |
| :---: | :---: |
| differ | Be different.  He differed from his contemporaries in ethical matters. |
| different | Unlike in nature or quality or form or degree. This new music is certainly different but I don t really like it. |
| differential | A difference between amounts of things. Differential equation. |
| differentiated | Exhibiting biological specialization; adapted during development to a specific function or environment. |
| differently | In a way that is not the same as another or as before. We work differently from other developers. |
| discrepancy | An illogical or surprising lack of compatibility or similarity between two or more facts.  There s a discrepancy between your account and his. |
| disjointed | Lacking orderly continuity.  Piecing together disjointed fragments of information. |
| disparate | Things so unlike that there is no basis for comparison. A disparate aggregate of creeds and songs and prayers. |
| dissimilar | Marked by dissimilarity.  The pleasures of the romance novel are not dissimilar from those of the chocolate bar. |
| distinct | (often followed by `from') not alike; different in nature or quality. The gallery is divided into five distinct spaces. |
| distinction | A difference or contrast between similar things or people. A novelist of distinction. |
| distinguish | Recognize or treat (someone or something) as different. What distinguishes sport from games. |
| divergence | The process or state of diverging.  The divergence between primates and other groups. |
| gap | Make an opening or gap in.  There are many gaps in our understanding of what happened. |
| incompatibility | Inability of equipment, computer programs, etc. to be used in combination.  Genetic incompatibility. |
| incompatible | Used especially of drugs or muscles that counteract or neutralize each  other's effect.  Long hours are simply incompatible with family life.  An inconsistent aspect or element. |
| :--- | :--- |
| inconsistency | The inconsistency between his expressed attitudes and his actual  behaviour. |
| inconsistent | Not staying the same throughout.  The quality of the material was often inconsistent. |
| individuation | Discriminating the individual from the generic group or species.  The relation between propositions that cannot both be true at the same  repugnance  time. |
| revulsion | Our repugnance at the bleeding carcasses.  Intense aversion. |
| separate | News of the attack will be met with sorrow and revulsion.  Have the connection undone having become separate. |
| unlike | Separate the eggs and beat the egg yolks. |
|  | Not like; different from.  He was very unlike to any other man.  unshared |
| Not shared.  Most of those placed in hostels would prefer unshared independent  accommodation. |  |

