

Need another word that means the same as "displaced"? Find 30 related words for "displaced" in this overview.

Table Of Contents:

Associations of "Displaced" (30 Words)

Associations of "Displaced" (30 Words)

agent Any agent or representative of a federal agency or bureau.

Speak to your letting agent about refurbishing the property.

Of leaves or shoots placed alternately on the two sides of the stem.

alternate He shall be entitled to exercise the vote of the director for whom he is an alternate.

alternating (of two or more things) occurring in turn repeatedly.

Alternating feelings of love and hate.

alternative Serving or used in place of another.

She had no alternative but to break the law.

alternatively In place of, or as an alternative to.

Alternatively we could buy a used car.

bump In a race gain a bump against.

The bump threw him off the bicycle.

deputy An assistant with power to act when his superior is absent.

The deputy prime minister.

exchange Exchange a penalty for a less severe one.

They had a bitter exchange.

(of goods contracted for without an individual specimen being specified)

fungible replaceable by another identical item; mutually interchangeable.

It is by no means the world s only fungible commodity.

Not direct in spatial dimension; not leading by a straight line or course to a indirect destination.

Sometimes taking an indirect path saves time.

As an alternative or substitute.

She never married preferring instead to remain single.

Reciprocal transfer of equivalent sums of money (especially the currencies

interchange of different countries.

We have a significant interchange of staff with the nearby college.

permanently In a way that lasts or continues without interruption; continually.

We need to be permanently vigilant.

A selection of a specified number of matches in a football pool.

permutation His thoughts raced ahead to fifty different permutations of what he must do.

Make a preemptive bid in the game of bridge.

preempt Discussion of the emergency situation will preempt the lecture by the professor.

proxyA person authorized to act for another.

The use of a US wealth measure as a proxy for the true worldwide measure.

replace Put (something) back in a previous place or position.

We need to replace the secretary that left a month ago.

replacement Someone who takes the place of another person.

A hip replacement.

reversal Turning in an opposite direction or position.

The reversal of the image in the lens.

substitute Act or serve as a substitute.

Customs officers substituted the drugs with another substance.

substitution The act of putting one thing or person in the place of another.

The substitution of rail services with buses.

successor A person or thing that succeeds another.

He was President Lincoln s successor.

supercede Take the place or move into the position of. Take the place or move into the position of.

supersede

The older models of car have now been superseded.

Supersede and replace.

supplant Domestic production has been supplanted by imports and jobs have been lost.

surrogate

Denoting a child to whom a woman gives birth as a surrogate mother.

She has given birth to three surrogate babies.

temporarily For a limited period of time; not permanently.

A temporarily vacant department store.

Cause (two or more things) to exchange places.

transpose

A sequence of French tales transposed into English.

transposition The act of reversing the order or place of.

Transposition of word order.

vicarious

Experienced in the imagination through the feelings or actions of another person.

Vicarious menstruation.

