

Need another word that means the same as "earnestly"? Find 9 synonyms for "earnestly" in this overview.

Table Of Contents:

- Earnestly as an Adverb
- Definitions of "Earnestly" as an adverb
- Synonyms of "Earnestly" as an adverb (9 Words)
- Usage Examples of "Earnestly" as an adverb

The synonyms of "Earnestly" are: in earnest, seriously, solemnly, gravely, soberly, sincerely, intently, resolutely, firmly

Earnestly as an Adverb

Definitions of "Earnestly" as an adverb

According to the Oxford Dictionary of English, "earnestly" as an adverb can have the following definitions:

- In a serious manner.
- With sincere and intense conviction; seriously.

Synonyms of "Earnestly" as an adverb (9 Words)

firmly In a way that uses steady power or strength.

His reputation is now firmly established.

gravely

In a serious or solemn manner.

The guard nodded gravely.

The guard housed the incide of in earnest To or toward the inside of.

intently With strained or eager attention.

He gazed at her intently.

resolutely With firmness.

She resolutely refused to be bullied by those around her.

seriously In a solemn or considered manner.

Was seriously ill.

sincerely Written formula for ending a letter.

I sincerely hope that we shall have a change of government.

soberly In a serious, sensible, and solemn manner.

The citizens lived soberly and simply.

solemnly In a formal and dignified manner.

The players walked solemnly off the court.

Usage Examples of "Earnestly" as an adverb

• They earnestly hope to come back in the summer.

• Talking earnestly with his son.