Answers

Pronouns and possessive adjectives exercises with answers

1. It
   A bag is a thing, so we use it. We use she for a woman.

2. us ... them
   After with and after visit we use us and them. We and they come before a verb.

3. Her
   A sister = she, so we use her. His is for a man.

4. parents'
   Two names mean two parents. After plural -s we add only an apostrophe.

5. That ... These
   Over there and one woman: that. Here and more than one boy: these.

6. Whose
   We ask about the owner, so we use whose. We use who to ask about a person, and who's means who is.

7. They ... It
   Sam and Ben = they. A ball is a thing, so we use it, not he.

8. him
   After the verb like we use him. He comes before a verb.

9. its
   The hotel = it, so we use its. It's means it is, and his is for a man.

10. Tom's ... brothers'
    Tom is one person, so Tom's. Brothers ends in -s, so we add only an apostrophe.

11. Those people work with my father.
    People is plural, so we use those. That and this are for one.

12. Anna's
    To answer whose, we add 's to the name. Anna alone does not show the owner.

13. The bus is slow, but it's cheap.
    A bus is a thing, so we use it. He is for a man.

14. them
    After with we use them. They comes before a verb.

15. Their ... its
    Tom and Anna = they, so their cat. The cat = it, so its name.

16. My friends' children speak English.

Friends ends in -s, so we add only an apostrophe: friends'. Friend without 's does not show whose children they are.

17. These

Shoes is plural, so we use these. This and that are for one thing.

18. Whose ... Maria's

We ask about the owner with whose. In the answer we add 's to the name.

19. They

Two cats are more than one, so we use they. It is for one thing or animal.

20. her

The neighbour = she, so after see we use her. Him is for a man.

21. her

The subject is she, so we use her. His is for a man.

22. sister's

There is one sister, so we use sister's. Sisters' is for more than one.

23. This

Apple is singular, so we use this. These and those are for plural nouns.

24. They're

Shoes is plural, so we use they're. It's is for one thing.
