Answers

Wh questions and yes/no questions: exercises with answers

1. Is
   There is no other verb here, so we use be, not does. Your sister = she, so we use Is.

2. did ... go
   Last night shows the past, and go is not a form of be, so we use did. After did we use the infinitive: go, not went.

3. does
   Leave is not a form of be. The train = it, so we use does.

4. cousins
   After how many we use a plural noun. Money is uncountable, so we use how much with it.

5. met ... did
   Who is the subject, so there is no did. Yesterday shows the past: met. In the short answer, did shows the past.

6. Which
   We choose from two things, so we use which. What is for a general question.

7. does
   Start is not a form of be. The lesson = it, so we use does.

8. Do ... don't
   Live is not a form of be, and Tom and Anna = they, so we use Do. The short answer repeats it: don't.

9. Where did you buy this bag?
   After where we put did and then you. After did we use the infinitive: buy, not bought.

10. are
    There is no other verb, so after why we use be. With you it is are, not do.

11. much ... many
    Milk is uncountable, so we use how much. We can count eggs, so we use how many.

12. Who ate my apple?
    Who is the subject: we ask who did the action. So there is no did, and the verb is in the Past Simple.

13. What
    There is no choice between things here, so we use what. We use which for a small number of things.

14. time ... does
    We ask about clock time with what time. The shop = it, so then we use does.

15. Is your teacher from London?
    There is no other verb, so we don't need does or do. Your teacher is one person, so we use Is, not Are.

16. do

Live is not a form of be, so we need do. With you it is do, not does.

17. When ... do

At seven is a time, so we use when. Get is not a form of be, so we put do.

18. How much money do you need?

Money is uncountable, so we use how much. Money comes right after how much, then do you.

19. lives

Here who is the subject, so we don't use does. The verb has -s, like after he.

20. What ... Which

The job question is general, so we use what. We choose from two cars, so we use which.

21. What time does your bus come?

We ask about clock time with what time. Your bus = it, so we use does, and come has no -s.

22. Was

Yesterday shows the past. There is no other verb, so we use Was, not Did.

23. does

Your sister = she, so after what we use does, not do. The do at the end is the main verb.

24. did

Yesterday shows the past. Get is not a form of be, so we use did.
