

Need another word that means the same as “enforcer”? Find 1 synonym for “enforcer” in this overview.

Table Of Contents:

- Enforcer as a Noun
- Definitions of "Enforcer" as a noun
- Synonyms of "Enforcer" as a noun \(1 Word\)
- Usage Examples of "Enforcer" as a noun

The synonyms of “Enforcer” are: hatchet man

Enforcer as a Noun

Definitions of "Enforcer" as a noun

According to the Oxford Dictionary of English, “enforcer” as a noun can have the following definitions:

- A person who imposes their will by violence and intimidation.
- One whose job it is to execute unpleasant tasks for a superior.
- A person or group that compels observance of or compliance with a law, rule, or obligation.
- (in sport) a strong, aggressive, or intimidating player whose role is to protect teammates or dominate an area of the field of play.

Synonyms of "Enforcer" as a noun (1 Word)

hatchet man Weapon consisting of a fighting ax; used by North American Indians.

Usage Examples of "Enforcer" as a noun

- Gangland enforcers linked to a drugs gang.
- The broad-chested former Liverpool defensive enforcer.
- We will encourage law enforcers to take strict measures against those involved in corruption.
- The city police's role as enforcers of traffic rules will increase.

