

Need another word that means the same as "executive"? Find 18 synonyms and 30 related words for "executive" in this overview.

Table Of Contents:

- Executive as a Noun
- Definitions of "Executive" as a noun
- Synonyms of "Executive" as a noun (13 Words)
- Usage Examples of "Executive" as a noun
- Executive as an Adjective
- Definitions of "Executive" as an adjective
- Synonyms of "Executive" as an adjective (5 Words)
- Usage Examples of "Executive" as an adjective
- Associations of "Executive" (30 Words)

The synonyms of "Executive" are: administrative, directorial, directing, controlling, managerial, administrator, executive director, chief, head, principal, senior official, senior manager, senior administrator, administration, leadership, management, directorate, directors

Executive as a Noun

Definitions of "Executive" as a noun

According to the Oxford Dictionary of English, "executive" as a noun can have the following definitions:

- A person with senior managerial responsibility in a business.
- The branch of a government responsible for putting decisions or laws into effect.
- Suitable for a senior business executive.
- Someone who manages a government agency or department.
- Persons who administer the law.
- An executive committee or other body within an organization.
- A person responsible for the administration of a business.

Synonyms of "Executive" as a noun (13 Words)

administration The act of administering medication.

The company went into administration.

administrator A person who dispenses or administers something.

Administrators of justice.

chiefThe upper third of the field.

The chief of the village.

A group of persons chosen to govern the affairs of a corporation or directorate other large institution.

The Food Safety Directorate.

directors Member of a board of directors.

executive director Someone who manages a government agency or department.

The head regarded as the location of intellect imagination and head memory.

Stags yearly cast their heads in March.

leadershipThe leaders of an organization, country, etc.

His leadership inspired the team.

Trickery; deceit.

management We would like to thank the management and staff for their continued support.

An actor who plays a principal role.

principal Principals in general practice are self employed and controlled by their practice agreements.

senior administrator A person who is older than you are.

senior manager A person who is older than you are.

senior official An undergraduate student during the year preceding graduation.

Usage Examples of "Executive" as a noun

- The chief executive.
- An executive house.
- The union executive.
- Account executives.

Executive as an Adjective

Definitions of "Executive" as an adjective

According to the Oxford Dictionary of English, "executive" as an adjective can have the following definitions:

- Relating to or having the power to put plans or actions into effect.
- \bullet Having the function of carrying out plans or orders etc.
- Denoting or relating to the part of a political administration with responsibility for putting into effect laws drawn up by the legislature.

Synonyms of "Executive" as an adjective (5 Words)

administrative Of or relating to or responsible for administration.

Administrative staff.

Able to control or determine policy. controlling A controlling interest in the firm.

In precisely the same words used by a writer or speaker. directing Felt his mother s directing arm around him.

Relating to a person who supervises the actors and other staff in a film, directorial play, or similar production.

Matthews served in a variety of directorial positions.

Of or relating to the function or responsibility or activity of management. managerial

The division of managerial responsibilities.

Usage Examples of "Executive" as an adjective

- The executive branch of government.
- Executive authority.
- An executive chairman.

Associations of "Executive" (30 Words)

A person legally appointed to manage and dispose of the estate of a administrator deceased person, debtor, or insolvent company.

Administrators of justice.

A chess piece typically with its top shaped like a mitre that can move in any direction along a diagonal on which it stands Each player starts the game with two bishops one moving on white squares and the other on black.

Ride on a snowboard.

The cousins boarded for a while with Ruby.

boss Raise in a relief.

He does not like being bossed around.

chairman One of the two people carrying a sedan chair. He was chairman of the finance committee.

chairperson A chairman or chairwoman (used as a neutral alternative).

Address your remarks to the chairperson.

An informal form of address to a man, especially one of superior rank or chief status.

The chief of the village.

clergy
In Christianity clergymen collectively as distinguished from the laity.

All marriages were to be solemnized by the clergy.

coadjutor An assistant to a bishop.

A body concerned with the preservation of natural resources.

conservancy From the point of view of nature conservancy I d rather see it left unspoilt.

controller Someone who maintains and audits business accounts.

A temperature controller.

curate A minister with pastoral responsibility.

diocesan Of or concerning a diocese.

director Member of a board of directors.

The sales director.

elected Subject to popular election.

A male worker who supervises and directs other workers.

If you want to leave early you have to ask the foreman.

. The act of governing exercising authority.

governingRegulations for the governing of state prisons.

A program or system that controls or organizes a peripheral device or manager process.

If I was his manager I would offer Lewis 8 m for the fight.

Administer a sacrament.

minister

A minister of the Lutheran church.

A thing used for organizing.

She was the organizer of the meeting.

parochial Relating to a Church parish.

The parochial church council.

... The head of a university.

The president of the European Union.

Ordain to the priesthood.

The priest celebrated mass at a small altar off the north transept.

Someone who finds financing for and supervises the making and producer presentation of a show (play or film or program or similar work.

Maine is a leading producer of potatoes.

(in the Church of England) the incumbent of a parish where all tithes rector formerly passed to the incumbent.

A shopkeeper. storekeeper

Watch and direct. supervise

Nurses were supervised by a consultant psychiatrist.

A council convened to discuss ecclesiastical business. synod

The deanery synod.

Guaranteed permanent employment especially as a teacher or lecturer

after a probationary period security of tenure. tenure

She was tenured after she published her book.

A cleric or choir member appointed to sing certain parts of a cathedral vicar service.

