

Need another word that means the same as "factory"? Find 9 synonyms and 30 related words for "factory" in this overview.

Table Of Contents:

- Factory as a Noun
- Definitions of "Factory" as a noun
- Synonyms of "Factory" as a noun (9 Words)
- Usage Examples of "Factory" as a noun
- Associations of "Factory" (30 Words)

The synonyms of "Factory" are: manufactory, manufacturing plant, mill, works, plant, manufacturing complex, manufacturing facility, yard, business unit

Factory as a Noun

Definitions of "Factory" as a noun

According to the Oxford Dictionary of English, "factory" as a noun can have the following definitions:

- A building or group of buildings where goods are manufactured or assembled chiefly by machine.
- A plant consisting of one or more buildings with facilities for manufacturing.
- An establishment for traders carrying on business in a foreign country.
- A person or organization that continually produces a great quantity of something specified.

Synonyms of "Factory" as a noun (9 Words)

| business unit          | A commercial or industrial enterprise and the people who constitute it.                        |
|------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| manufactory            | A plant consisting of one or more buildings with facilities for manufacturing.                 |
| manufacturing complex  | The act of making something (a product) from raw materials.                                    |
| manufacturing facility | The act of making something (a product) from raw materials.                                    |
| manufacturing plant    | The act of making something (a product) from raw materials.                                    |
| mill                   | The act of grinding to a powder or dust.A mill town.                                |
| plant                  | A small plant as distinct from a shrub or tree.Inadequate investment in new plant . |
| works                  | The internal mechanism of a device.The reward for good works .                      |

yard

A square or cubic yard especially of sand or other building materials.

It cost two hundred up front one yard for Maurice one for the girl.

Usage Examples of "Factory" as a noun

- The group have become a rock-and-roll hit factory.
- A clothing factory.
- He is chaplain to the British factory at St Petersburg.
- Factory workers.

Associations of "Factory" (30 Words)

| arable         | Arable land or crops.Open arable fields.                                                          |
|----------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| brewery | A place where beer is made commercially.Work continued on the new lager brewery in Alton.         |
| cannery        | A factory where food is canned.                                                                              |
| create         | Create or manufacture a man made product.He was created a baronet.                         |
| distillery     | A place where spirits are manufactured.Scotland s southernmost malt distillery .                  |
| drinking       | The act of drinking alcoholic beverages to excess.He was ordered to cut down his drinking. |
| fabrication    | An invention; a lie.The synthesis and fabrication of single crystals.                      |

| fecund          | Producing many new ideas.Her fecund imagination.                                                                                                      |
|-----------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| fecundity       | The state of being fertile; capable of producing offspring.The immense fecundity of his imagination made a profound impact onEuropean literature.        |
| fertile  | Marked by great fruitfulness.The fertile coastal plain.                                                                                                      |
| figment         | A thing that someone believes to be real but that exists only in their imagination.A figment of the imagination.                                             |
| foundry         | A workshop or factory for casting metal.                                                                                                                                |
| fructify        | Make (something) fruitful or productive.They were sacrificed in order that their blood might fructify the crops.                                             |
| fruitful | Producing good or helpful results; productive.This seed will grow into a lovely fruitful tree.                                                               |
| gin             | Separate the seeds from cotton with a cotton gin. Gin game .                                                                                                     |
| industry        | Hard work.The kitchen became a hive of industry .                                                                                                            |
| liquor          | An alcoholic beverage that is distilled rather than fermented. Waste liquors.                                                                                    |
| make            | Make by combining materials and parts.Make a move.                                                                                                           |
| manufacture     | Manufactured articles.Julia manufacture d a smile.                                                                                                           |
| manufacturer    | A person or company that makes goods for sale.The manufacturer s supply the goods to the distribution centre.                                                |
| manufacturing   | The act of making something (a product) from raw materials.Manufacturing is vital to Great Britain.                                                          |
| mechanize       | Make mechanical.If your work becomes too mechanize d change jobs.                                                                                            |
| prevarication   | The deliberate act of deviating from the truth.                                                                                                                         |
| produce         | Create or manufacture a man-made product.The Bordeaux region produce s great red wines.                                                                      |
| producer        | A person responsible for the financial and managerial aspects of the making of a film or broadcast or for staging a play, opera, etc. A record producer . |

| productive      | Producing or capable of producing (especially abundantly. A productive vineyard .                                                          |
|-----------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| prolific | (of a sports player) high-scoring.A prolific pear tree.                                                                                |
| sawmill         | A mill for dressing logs and lumber.                                                                                                              |
| scotch          | A slight surface cut (especially a notch that is made to keep a tally. Feudal power in France was scotch ed though far from killed. |
| tannerv         | A place where animal hides are tanned: the workshop of a tanner.                                                                                  |

