

Need another word that means the same as "fortified"? Find 1 synonym and 30 related words for "fortified" in this overview.

Table Of Contents:

- Fortified as an Adjective
- Definitions of "Fortified" as an adjective
- Synonyms of "Fortified" as an adjective (1 Word)
- Usage Examples of "Fortified" as an adjective
- Associations of "Fortified" (30 Words)

The synonyms of "Fortified" are: bastioned

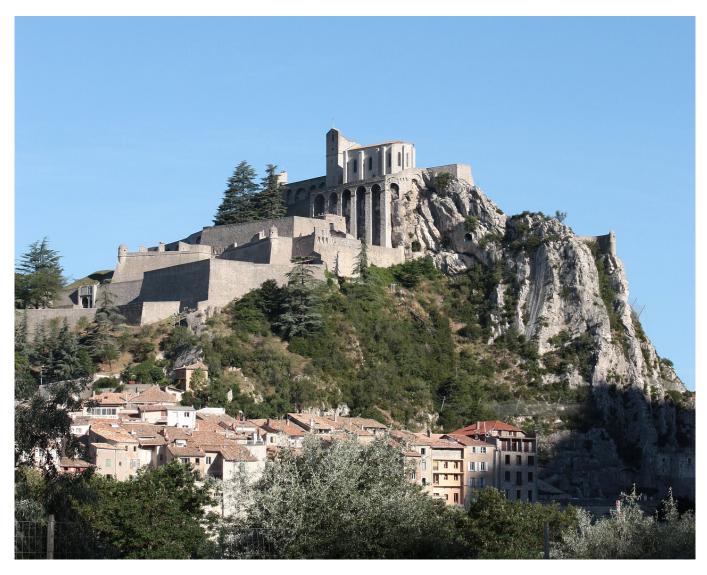

Fortified as an Adjective

Definitions of "Fortified" as an adjective

According to the Oxford Dictionary of English, "fortified" as an adjective can have the following definitions:

- Denoting wine of a type to which spirits have been added so as to produce port, sherry, or a similar drink.
- (of a place) provided with defensive works as protection against attack.
- Secured with bastions or fortifications.
- Having something added to increase the strength.
- (of food) having had vitamins or other supplements added so as to increase the nutritional value.

Synonyms of "Fortified" as an adjective (1 Word)

bastioned Having a bastion or bastions; fortified or defended with or as if with bastions.

Usage Examples of "Fortified" as an adjective

- Fortified wine.
- Fortified breakfast cereals.
- Many fortified wines are sweet.
- A fortified manor house.

Associations of "Fortified" (30 Words)

assertive Aggressively self-assured.

Pointing directly at a listener is an assertive act.

athletic Relating to athletes or athletics.

Athletic events.

convinced Having a strong belief or conviction.

I am convinced the war will be over in a matter of months.

determined Determined or decided upon as by an authority.

Helen was a determined little girl.

emphatic An emphatic consonant.

An emphatic movement of his hand.

Establish (an attitude, habit, or belief) so firmly that change is very difficult entrench or unlikely.

This matter entrenches on other domains.

(of an attitude, habit, or belief) firmly established and difficult or unlikely to entrenched change; ingrained.

The entrenched power of the nobility.

firm Marked by firm determination or resolution not shakable.

She will stand firm against the government s proposal.

In a way that uses steady power or strength.

We firmly believed it.

firmness The application of steady but not excessive power or strength.

So certain were we of the firmness of our plan.

hard Unfortunate or hard to bear.

He d been a hard worker all his life.

hardheaded Guided by practical experience and observation rather than theory.

A hardheaded appraisal of our position.

The property of being rigid and resistant to pressure; not easily scratched;

hardness measured on Mohs scale.

People complained about the hardness of the chairs.

Asking for information, especially condescendingly.

You might have told me.

rampart Fortify or surround with or as if with a rampart.

A castle with ramparts and a moat.

Unwillingness to be adaptable in outlook, belief, or response.

rigidityThe rigidity of the school system.

rigor

rigidness The physical property of being stiff and resisting bending.

The quality of being valid and rigorous.

The rigors of boot camp.

rigorous Demanding strict attention to rules and procedures.

Rigorous discipline.

rigour The quality of being valid and rigorous.

The full rigour of the law.

securely

In a manner free from fear or risk.

She held the child securely.

solidly In a way that is physically strong.

Fleetwood batted solidly if unspectacularly.

A person who is loyal to their allegiance (especially in times of revolt.

Wart He was of stalwart build.

stiffness The quality of being firm and difficult to bend or move.

A charming host without any touch of stiffness or pomposity.

In a resolute manner.

He stoutly maintained his innocence.

strong Having a strong physiological or chemical effect.

The company was in a strong position to negotiate a deal.

To a great degree or extent.

stronglyThe rebel movement strongly denied responsibility for the attack.

(of a person or their body) strongly and solidly built.

He had a sturdy muscular physique.

Securely fixed or fastened.

Public companies are tightly regulated.

unshaken Unshaken in purpose.

Their trust in him remained unshaken.

