

Need another word that means the same as "gave"? Find 30 related words for "gave" in this overview.

Table Of Contents:

• Associations of "Gave" (30 Words)

Associations of "Gave" (30 Words)

allocate Distribute (resources or duties) for a particular purpose.

Students are allocated accommodation on a yearly basis.

allot Give or apportion (something) to someone.

I was allotted a little room in the servants block.

Payment of an obligation in a series of installments or transfers.

amortization An amortization schedule shows your payments each month and how it affects the total amount you owe.

Divide up and share out.

They did not apportion blame or liability to any one individual.

appropriation Money set aside (as by a legislature) for a specific purpose.

A person s appropriation of property belonging to another is dishonest.

assign

Give an assignment to a person to a post or assign a task to a person.

She has been assigned to a new job.

authorization

The act of conferring legality or sanction or formal warrant.

The raising of revenue and the authorization of spending.

bestowBestow a quality on.

The office was bestowed on him by the monarch of this realm.

Give over; surrender or relinquish to the physical control of another.

In 1874 the islands were ceded to Britain.

Make payment to compensate.

compensate The manager is hoping for victory to compensate for the team s dismal league campaign.

compensation The action or process of awarding compensation.

The compensation of victims.

concession A piece of land into which surveyed land is divided.

There are concessions on party bookings.

copyright Protected by copyright.

Making an unauthorized copy would infringe copyright.

dispense Give or apply (medications.

The machines dispense a range of drinks.

distributeCause to be distributed.

Information leaflets are being distributed to hotels.

forgoBe earlier in time; go back further.

She wanted to forgo the tea and leave while they could.

In a way that shows a readiness to give more of something, especially generously money, than is necessary or expected.

Everyone is asked to give generously to this worthy cause.

grantThe action of granting something.

This bill grants us new rights.

A relatively small amount of money given for services rendered (as by a gratuity waiter.

An end of contract gratuity of 20 of the total pay received.

Transmit or serve as the medium for transmission.

Impart a new skill to the students.

meed A fitting reward.

He must extract from her some meed of approbation.

(in the Anglican Church) the proportion of the funds of a parish quota contributed to the finances of the diocese.

All the salesmen met their quota for the month.

reassign Appoint (someone) to a different post or role.

He had been reassigned to another post.

remunerate Make payment to; compensate.

My efforts were not remunerated.

Something that remunerates.

remuneration They work in excess of their contracted hours for no additional remuneration.

Pay a salary to.

A 15 per cent salary increase.

Present (a proposal, application, or other document) to a person or body submit for consideration or judgement.

Samples submitted to low pressure while being airfreighted.

Bringing little or no profit or income.

unremunerative himging inche of no profit of income

An unremunerative occupation.

yield

The result or effect of doing something considered wrong or unwise. Napoleon and Hitler waged war against all of Europe. wage

Production of a certain amount.

He reeled into the house as the door yielded.

