

Need another word that means the same as "going on"? Find 30 related words for "going on" in this overview.

Table Of Contents:

• Associations of "Going on" (30 Words)

Associations of "Going on" (30 Words)

(of a person on bail) fail to surrender oneself for custody at the appointed abscond time.

The barman absconded with a week s takings.

The time interval during which something or somebody is away.

He visited during my absence.

ambulate Walk about; not be bedridden or incapable of walking.

People who make use of crutches to ambulate.

Into error or morally questionable behaviour.

He was led astray by boozy colleagues.

Out of the way especially away from one s thoughts.

Ran away from the lion.

bereavement. The fact or condition of being bereaved.

There is no right way to experience bereavement.

decampBreak up or leave a military camp.

Now he has decamped to Hollywood.

depart Leave (one's job.

He departed from the precedent set by many.

A person whose behavior deviates from what is acceptable especially in sexual behavior.

deviateThe whole affair offers revealing insights into attitudes towards sexual deviates.

digress

Leave the main subject temporarily in speech or writing.

I have digressed a little from my original plan.

dislodge Knock or force out of position.

The new employee dislodged her by moving into her office space.

The act of coming (or going) out; becoming apparent.

Direct means of access and egress for passengers.

err To make a mistake or be incorrect.

He has erred and strayed as many of us have.

exude (of a person) display (an emotion or quality) strongly and openly.

The beetle exudes a caustic liquid.

Beyond a norm in opinion or actions.

The far north of Scotland.

Wander aimlessly in search of pleasure.

He had heard that I was gadding about with an airline stewardess.

Go around from one place to another in the pursuit of pleasure or gallivant entertainment.

She quit her job to go gallivanting around the globe.

Go and leave behind either intentionally or by neglect or forgetfulness.

He ll leave you in no doubt about what he thinks.

leaving The act of departing.

mitigation

The action of lessening in severity or intensity.

The identification and mitigation of pollution.

A means of expressing one's talents, energy, or emotions.

An outlet store.

overboard To extremes.

The severe storm washed a man overboard.

passing
In sport the action of passing a ball to another team member.

With the passing of the years she had become a little eccentric.

ramble A walk taken for pleasure in the countryside.

Roses climbed rambled hung over walls.

(of a person's mind or thoughts) drift along without dwelling on anything in roam particular.

The gypsies roamed the woods.

(of a person's eyes) look in changing directions in order to see something rove thoroughly.

The policeman s eyes roved around the pub.

A well or borehole which runs partly to one side of the original line of sidetrack drilling.

A sidetrack to the original discovery well.

A quantity of liquid that has spilled or been spilt.

Diners can spill out into the courtyard.

An animal that has strayed especially a domestic animal.

Over these mounds the shepherd strays.

wander

An act or instance of wandering. His attention had wandered.

