

Need another word that means the same as "gone"? Find 44 synonyms and 30 related words for "gone" in this overview.

Table Of Contents:

- Gone as an Adjective
- Definitions of "Gone" as an adjective
- Synonyms of "Gone" as an adjective (44 Words)
- Usage Examples of "Gone" as an adjective
- Associations of "Gone" (30 Words)

The synonyms of "Gone" are: dog-tired, exhausted, fagged, fatigued, spent, washedout, worn-out, bygone, bypast, departed, foregone, drunk, inebriated, intoxicated, ripped, asleep, deceased, done for, kaput, away, absent, off, out, not present, truant, past, gone by, over, over and done with, no more, done, dead and buried, finished, completed, ended, forgotten, extinct, dead, expired, passed on, passed away, used up, depleted, drained

Gone as an Adjective

Definitions of "Gone" as an adjective

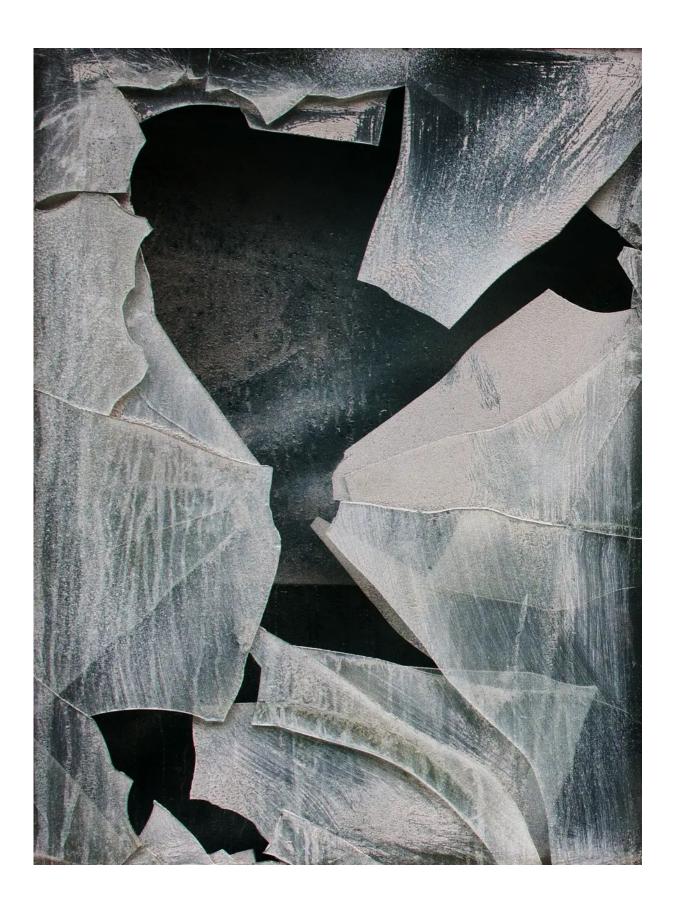

According to the Oxford Dictionary of English, "gone" as an adjective can have the following definitions:

- No longer present; departed.
- Dond
- Beyond help; in a hopeless state.
- Well in the past; former.
- No longer available; consumed or used up.
- No longer retained.
- Excellent; inspired.
- Drained of energy or effectiveness; extremely tired; completely exhausted.
- In a trance or stupor, especially through exhaustion, drink, or drugs.
- Used up or no longer available.
- Stupefied or excited by a chemical substance (especially alcohol.
- Having reached a specified time in a pregnancy.

- Destroyed or killed.
- No longer in existence; dead or extinct.

Synonyms of "Gone" as an adjective (44 Words)

Lost in thought; showing preoccupation. absent

An absent stare.

Used euphemistically to indicate that someone is dead. asleep

A man lay asleep.

Not present; having left.

You must not allow a stranger into the house when your mother is away away.

Belonging to an earlier time. bygone

Bygone days.

bypast Well in the past; former.

Successfully completed or brought to an end. completed

A completed forward pass.

Not circulating or flowing. dead

Dead sounds characteristic of some compact discs.

dead and buried Physically inactive.

Recently dead. deceased He is deceased.

Dead. departed

A dear departed relative.

No longer sufficient. depleted

Our funds are depleted.

Drained of energy or effectiveness; extremely tired; completely dog-tired exhausted.

No longer happening or existing. done

It s a done deed.

done for Having finished or arrived at completion.

Drained of electric charge discharged. drained

Left the lights on and came back to find the battery drained.

Having come or been brought to a conclusion.

The affair is over ended finished.

Drained of energy or effectiveness extremely tired completely exhausted exhausted.

ended

Exhausted peat workings.

Having come to an end or become void after passage of a period of expired time.

Caught driving with an expired license.

extinct Permanently inactive.

The islands are the remains of extinct volcanoes.

fatigued Drained of energy or effectiveness; extremely tired; completely exhausted.

(of skills or the products of skills) brought to or having the greatest finished excellence; perfected.

He was told he was finished at the club.

foregone Well in the past; former.

Dreams of foregone times.

forgotten Not noticed inadvertently.

Her aching muscles forgotten she danced all night.

gone by Well in the past; former.

inebriated Stupefied or excited by a chemical substance (especially alcohol.

Helplessly inebriated.

intoxicated Drunk or under the influence of drugs.

A noisy crowd of intoxicated sailors.

kaputBroken and useless; no longer working or effective.

The water pump s broken kaput.

no more Quantifier; used with either mass nouns or plural count nouns for indicating a complete or almost complete lack or zero quantity of.

not present

Temporal sense; intermediate between past and future; now existing or happening or in consideration.

Located on the side of a vehicle that is normally furthest from the off kerb offside.

Even the greatest athletes have off days.

Of the ball in tennis and similar games outside the designated playing out area

A picnic is out because of the weather.

Having come or been brought to a conclusion.

The affair is over ended finished.

over and done with Having come or been brought to a conclusion.

passed awaypassed onOf advancing the ball by throwing it.

past Earlier than the present time; no longer current.

The band has changed over the past twelve months.

ripped Under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs.

A pair of faded ripped jeans.

spent Having been used and unable to be used again.

The movement has become a spent force.

truant Of a pupil being a truant.

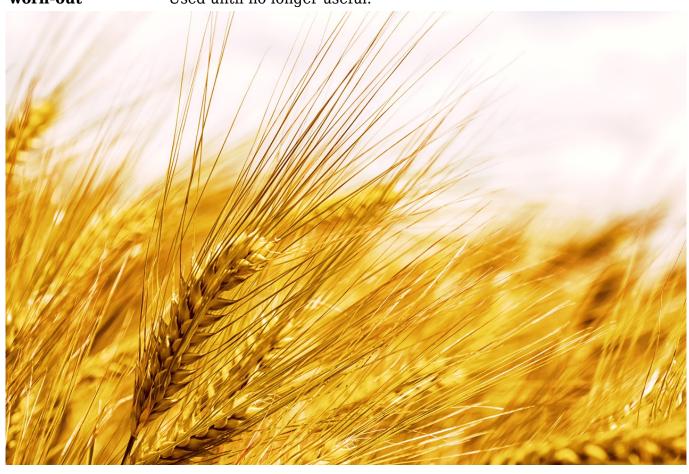

Truant schoolboys.

used up Employed in accomplishing something- H.H.Arnold & I.C.Eaker.

washed-out Drained of energy or effectiveness; extremely tired; completely exhausted.

worn-out Used until no longer useful.

Usage Examples of "Gone" as an adjective

• We are gone geese.

- If we don't get there early, all the best seats will be gone.
- Spending time and effort on a gone sucker like Galindez.
- Gone with the wind.
- She is now four months gone.
- Bygone days.
- An aunt of mine, long since gone.
- Dreams of foregone times.
- You were gone a long time.
- Sweet memories of gone summers.
- She sat, half-gone, on a folding chair.
- The food's all gone, I'm afraid.
- A bunch of real gone cats.
- The bad old days are gone.

Associations of "Gone" (30 Words)

The criminal act of capturing and carrying away by force a family member;

if a man's wife is abducted it is a crime against the family relationship and abduction against the wife.

Abductions by armed men in plain clothes.

ablate Remove an organ or bodily structure.

Drying winds slowly ablate away the ice.

absent Nonexistent.

He absented himself.

deceased Someone who is no longer alive.

The deceased man s family.

A harmful reduction in the amount of water in the body.

dehydration From an inspection of plants undergoing dehydration there was no evidence of root damage.

desiccant A hygroscopic substance used as a drying agent.

Natural desiccants cause fleas to dehydrate and die.

desiccation The removal of moisture from something.

Stems were stored in plastic bags to prevent desiccation.

die Cut or shape with a die. She died from cancer.

Become invisible or unnoticeable.

disappear
The tension had completely disappeared.

disappearance Gradually ceasing to be visible.

The disappearance of resistance at very low temperatures.

• The process of something abstract ceasing to exist.

evaporationSnow cover prevents evaporation of water from the soil.

exhausted Drained of energy or effectiveness extremely tired completely exhausted.

Exhausted oil wells.

fatigued Drained of energy or effectiveness; extremely tired; completely exhausted.

Past

foregonePoets dream of lives foregone in worlds fantastical.

Suspension or discharge of a worker or workers on account of economic furlough conditions or shortage of work, especially when temporary.

Half of employers say they will put the majority of their staff on furlough.

Not available or in short supply.

lacking Lacking in stamina.

layoff The act of laying off an employee or a work force.

Leave behind unintentionally.

He took his leave.

lose Miss from one s possessions lose sight of.

Lose that creep.

loss Euphemistic expressions for death.

He will be a great loss to many people.

miss Fail to attend, participate in, or watch.

Potter s been here this morning You ve just missed him.

(of a person) not yet traced or confirmed as alive, but not known to be missing dead, after an accident or during wartime.

He has been reported as a missing person.

omission Something that has been omitted.

The omission of recent publications from his bibliography.

perishBe suffering from extreme cold.

Must these noble hopes perish so soon.

An invisible spiritual being felt to be nearby.

Richard was not a big man but his presence was overwhelming.

Depleted of energy, force, or strength.

 $\begin{array}{c} \textbf{spent} \\ A \textbf{ spent } matchstick. \end{array}$

truant Of a pupil being a truant.

Truant schoolboys.

vanish Get lost, as without warning or explanation.

The environment is under threat hedgerows and woodlands are vanishing.

void Discharge or drain away (water, gases, etc.

The concert hall was voided of the audience.

wanting Lacking in a required or necessary quality.

They weren t wanting in confidence.

