

Need another word that means the same as "hiring"? Find 30 related words for "hiring" in this overview.

Table Of Contents:

• Associations of "Hiring" (30 Words)

Associations of "Hiring" (30 Words)

The time spent by a person in a career.

The general had had a distinguished career.

(of an accountant, engineer, librarian, etc.) qualified as a member of a chartered professional body that has a royal charter.

The chartered buses arrived on time.

The state of being employed or having a job.

The newcomers are employed in developing the technology into a product.

Put to use.

employed

Most of our graduates are employed.

employee A person employed for wages or salary, especially at non-executive level.

employer

A person or firm that employs workers.

The National Health Coming was the large

The National Health Service was the largest employer in Europe.

employment The utilization of something.

The employment of a full time tutor.

Engage for service under a term of contract.

She had offered to engage a room in the house of the woman.

Unavailable for use by anyone else or indicating unavailability engaged is a engaged British term for a busy telephone line.

She rang Mrs Tavett but the line was engaged.

hired Hired for the exclusive temporary use of a group of travelers.

Hired hands.

A person who works only for money.

hireling The government s paid hirelings assure us that we re on our way out of recession.

The state of being bound to service by an indenture.

indenture The 30 apprentices have received their indentures on completion of their training.

induct Formally introduce (a member of the clergy) into possession of a benefice.

My master inducted me into the skills of magic.

A brownish European moth of woods and hedgerows, the caterpillars of lackey which live communally in a silken tent on the food tree.

Lackeys were waiting to help them from the carriage.

latecomer Someone who arrives late.

Latecomers were not admitted before the interval.

mercenary A person hired to fight for another country than their own.

She s nothing but a mercenary little gold digger.

A body of people engaged in a particular profession.

The legal profession has become increasingly business conscious.

recruit Persuade to do or help with something.

The regiment was still actively recruiting.

A person whose job is to enlist or enrol people as employees, in the armed recruiter forces, or as members of an organization.

Military recruiters.

rent Hold under a lease or rental agreement of goods and services.

I cannot even afford to pay the rent on this flat.

semiskilled Possessing or requiring limited skills.

Semiskilled dockworkers.

servant A person working in the service of another (especially in the household.

A government servant.

subcontract Work under a subcontract engage in a subcontract.

Subcontract work.

subcontractor A firm or person that carries out work for a company as part of a larger project.

sycophant A person who tries to please someone in order to gain a personal advantage.

toady Act in an obsequious way.

She imagined him toadying to his rich clients.

workaholic Person with a compulsive need to work.

workday A day on which one works.

Saturdays were workdays for him.

The people engaged in or available for work, either in a country or area or workforce in a particular firm or industry.

A quarter of Galway s manufacturing workforce are being put out of a job.

working

The record of the successive calculations made in solving a mathematical problem.

They need working agreements with their neighbor states on interstate projects.

