

Need another word that means the same as "objection"? Find 20 synonyms and 30 related words for "objection" in this overview.

Table Of Contents:

- Objection as a Noun
- Definitions of "Objection" as a noun
- Synonyms of "Objection" as a noun (20 Words)
- Usage Examples of "Objection" as a noun
- Associations of "Objection" (30 Words)

The synonyms of "Objection" are: expostulation, remonstrance, remonstration, dissent, protest, protestation, demur, demurrer, exception, complaint, grievance, moan, grumble, grouse, cavil, quibble, statement of dissatisfaction, charge, accusation, criticism

Objection as a Noun

Definitions of "Objection" as a noun

According to the Oxford Dictionary of English, "objection" as a noun can have the following definitions:

- (law) a procedure whereby a party to a suit says that a particular line of questioning or a particular witness or a piece of evidence or other matter is improper and should not be continued and asks the court to rule on its impropriety or illegality.
- An expression or feeling of disapproval or opposition; a reason for disagreeing.
- The speech act of objecting.
- The action of challenging or disagreeing with something.
- A procedure whereby a party to a suit says that a particular line of questioning or a particular witness or a piece of evidence or other matter is improper and should not be continued and asks the court to rule on its impropriety.
- The act of protesting; a public (often organized) manifestation of dissent.
- The act of expressing earnest opposition or protest.

Synonyms of "Objection" as a noun (20 Words)

A charge or claim that someone has done something illegal or wrong.

There was accusation in Brian s voice.

cavil

An evasion of the point of an argument by raising irrelevant distinctions or objections.

The price charged for some article or service.

The babysitter watched over her charges.

complaint (criminal law) a pleading describing some wrong or offense.

I intend to make an official complaint.

criticism A written evaluation of a work of literature.

Constructive criticism is always appreciated.

demur A formal objection to an opponent's pleadings.

They accepted this ruling without demur.

(law) a formal objection to an opponent's pleadings.

demurrer The headmaster was about to enter a stinging demurrer when the phone rang.

The act of protesting a public often organized manifestation of dissent dissent.

He was sent off for dissent.

A person or thing that is excluded from a general statement or does not follow a rule.

exceptionAll her children were brilliant the only exception was her last child.

expostulation An exclamation of protest or remonstrance or reproof.

A real or imagined cause for complaint, especially unfair grievance treatment.

Three pilots have filed grievances against the company.

grouse Flesh of any of various grouse of the family Tetraonidae usually roasted flesh too dry to broil.

grumble A complaint.

In the distance I heard a grumble of thunder.

moan A sound resembling a human moan.

She gave a low moan of despair.

The act of protesting a public often organized manifestation of protest dissent.

remonstrance

Two senior scientists resigned in protest.

protestationAn emphatic declaration in response to doubt or accusation.

The many protestations did not stay the execution.

An evasion of the point of an argument by raising irrelevant

quibble distinctions or objections.

The only quibble about this book is the price.

The act of expressing earnest opposition or protest.

Angry remonstrances in the Commons.

remonstration The act of expressing earnest opposition or protest.

statement of dissatisfaction

A line of code written as part of a computer program.

Usage Examples of "Objection" as a noun

- They have raised no objections to the latest plans.
- His view is open to objection.

Associations of "Objection" (30 Words)

abnegation Self-denial.

Abnegation of the Holy Trinity.

contradict

Be in contradiction with.

He did not contradict what he said last week.

controvert Deny the truth of (something.

The views in the article have been controverted.

deny

Deny formally an allegation of fact by the opposing party in a legal suit.

There was no way that I was going to deny myself ice gream

There was no way that I was going to deny myself ice cream.

disagree Be different from one another.

She disagreed with the system of apartheid.

An expression of strong disapproval; pronouncing as wrong or morally culpable.

disapprobation She braved her mother s disapprobation and slipped out to enjoy herself.

disapproval

The expression of disapproval.

Jill replied with a hint of disapproval in her voice.

disayowal Denial of any connection with or knowledge of.

His disavowal of his previous writings.

disclaim Make a disclaimer about.

The school disclaimed any responsibility for his death.

The action of proving that something is untrue.

disproof The answer ought to turn on considerations that are susceptible to verification or disproof.

dissent

The act of protesting a public often organized manifestation of dissent.

He was sent off for dissent.

dissenter A member of a non-established Church; a Nonconformist.

dissentient Disagreeing, especially with a majority.

Dissentient voices were castigated as hopeless bureaucrats.

A person who opposes official policy, especially that of an authoritarian dissident state.

The measure was supported by dissident Tories.

Take exception to.

gainsay
None could gainsay her.

Attack as false or wrong.

impugnThe father does not impugn her capacity as a good mother.

inadmissible Not deserving to be admitted.

Inadmissible evidence.

objector A person who expresses opposition to or disagreement with something.

Objectors claim the motorway will damage the environment.

oppose Fight against or resist strongly.

We oppose the ban on abortion.

A person who publicly demonstrates opposition to something; a protester demonstrator.

The decision was hailed by protesters against the closure as a triumph.

Prove to be false or incorrect.

rebut He had to rebut charges of acting for the convenience of his political friends.

rebuttal A pleading by the defendant in reply to a plaintiff's surrejoinder.

refuse Refuse to let have.

He was severely beaten when he refused.

refutation The speech act of answering an attack on your assertions.

He fails to give a clear refutation of the argument.

Deny or contradict (a statement or accusation.

These claims have not been convincingly refuted.

reject Reject with contempt.

The journal rejected the student s paper.

rejection The action of spurning a person's affections.

His proposals were met with rejection.

A document drawn up in 1610 by the Arminians of the Dutch Reformed remonstrance Church, presenting the differences between their doctrines and those of the strict Calvinists.

Angry remonstrances in the Commons.

repudiate Refuse to recognize or pay.

Philip was excommunicated in 1095 because he had repudiated his wife.

A resistant substance applied as a coating to protect a surface during a resist process for example to prevent dye or glaze adhering.

He didn t resist despite the weapons he had.