

Need another word that means the same as "reconstruct"? Find 20 synonyms and 30 related words for "reconstruct" in this overview.

Table Of Contents:

- Reconstruct as a Verb
- Definitions of "Reconstruct" as a verb
- Synonyms of "Reconstruct" as a verb (20 Words)
- Usage Examples of "Reconstruct" as a verb
- Associations of "Reconstruct" (30 Words)

The synonyms of "Reconstruct" are: restore, rebuild, construct, retrace, redo, remodel, renovate, recreate, remake, reassemble, refashion, revamp, recondition, refurbish, build up a impression of, build up a picture of, form a impression of, form a picture of, piece together, build up

Reconstruct as a Verb

Definitions of "Reconstruct" as a verb

According to the Oxford Dictionary of English, "reconstruct" as a verb can have the following definitions:

- Return to its original or usable and functioning condition.
- Build or form (something) again after it has been damaged or destroyed.
- Build again.
- Cause somebody to adapt or reform socially or politically.
- Reorganize (something.
- Do over, as of (part of) a house.
- Form an impression, model, or re-enactment of (a past event or thing) from the available evidence.
- Reassemble mentally.

Synonyms of "Reconstruct" as a verb (20 Words) build up Found or ground.build up a impression of Bolster or strengthen.

build up a picture of Build or establish something abstract.

Form (an idea or theory) by bringing together various construct conceptual elements.

Construct a square equal in area to a given circle.

form a impression of Develop into a distinctive entity.

form a picture ofCreate (as an entity. piece togetherRepair by adding pieces.

reassemble (of a group) gather together again.

After lunch the class reassembled.

Build again.

rebuild

The house was rebuild after it was hit by a bomb.

Bring into an improved condition.

recondition It was necessary to recondition the human mind to accept change.

recreate Create anew.

He recreated Mallory s 1942 climb for TV.

redo Redecorate (a room or building.

A whole day s work has to be redone.

Make new.

refashionThe industry reshaped and refashioned itself.

refurbish Renovate and redecorate (something, especially a building.

We refurbished the guest wing.

remake Make (something) again or differently.

The bed would be more comfortable if it were remade.

remodel Do over, as of (part of) a house.

We are remodeling these rooms.

Refresh; reinvigorate.

renovate The old school has been tastefully renovated as a private house.

Restore by replacing a part or putting together what is torn or restore broken.

The building has been lovingly restored.

To go back over again.

retrace

We retraced the route we took last summer.

To patch up or renovate; repair or restore.

revampThey revamped their old house before selling it.

Usage Examples of "Reconstruct" as a verb

- Reconstruct the events of 20 years ago.
- Later emperors reconstructed the army.
- A small area of painted Roman plaster has been reconstructed.
- From copies of correspondence it is possible to reconstruct the broad sequence of events.

Associations of "Reconstruct" (30 Words)

A person who is responsible for inventing or realizing a particular idea or architect project.

The great Norman architect of Durham Cathedral.

architecture An architectural product or work.

The architecture of a computer s system software.

brick Bricks collectively as a building material.

I had one of those Motorola bricks as my first cell phone.

build Commission finance and oversee the building of something.

The government is building new schools in this state.

building The occupants of a building.

Workers in the building trades.

Make a concoction of by mixing.

His cronies concocted a simple plan.

The creation of a construct; the process of combining ideas into a construction congruous object of thought.

They put an unsympathetic construction on his conduct.

fabricate Invent (something) in order to deceive.

You will have to fabricate an exhaust system.

Move or act with a sudden increase in speed or energy.

forgeShe forged a Green Card.

Extensive landed property especially in the country retained by the owner land for his own use.

He built the house on land leased from the city.

The district covered by a police station.

The right to mine ores within the manor of Little Langdale.

rebuild An instance of rebuilding.

We try to help them rebuild their lives.

recast Allocate the parts in (a play or film) to different actors.

She had to recast her image to please the electorate in her home state.

reclaim

The action or process of reclaiming or being reclaimed.

Allow a week or ten days for reclaiming the bird.

reconstitute Restore (dried food or drink) to its original state by adding water.

The governing board was reconstituted.

An interpretation formed by piecing together bits of evidence.

reconstruction A reconstruction of the accident would be staged to try to discover the cause of the tragedy.

reestablish

Bring back into original existence, use, function, or position.

Reestablish peace in the region.

The restoration (replanting) of a forest that had been reduced by fire or reforestation cutting.

A massive reforestation project to renew soil fertility.

refurbish Renovate and redecorate (something, especially a building.

The premises have been completely refurbished in our corporate style.

reinstate

Bring back into original existence, use, function, or position.

The union threatened strike action if Owen was not reinstated.

remodel Do over, as of (part of) a house.

The station was remodelled and enlarged in 1927.

remold Shape again or shape differently.

The imposition of a new organization; organizing differently (often involving extensive and drastic changes.

reorganization A committee was appointed to oversee the reorganization of the curriculum.

reshape Shape or form (something) differently or again.

The decrees will thoroughly reshape Poland s economy.

reshuffle Reorganize and assign posts to different people.

The gambler demanded a reshuffle.

restoreRestore by replacing a part or putting together what is torn or broken.

The effort to restore him to office isn t working.

Organize differently.

restructure Shareholders and creditors agreed to restructure debts and payment schedules.

The imposition of a new organization; organizing differently (often shakeup involving extensive and drastic changes.

Top officials were forced out in the cabinet shakeup.

An official inspector of something, especially for measurement and surveyor valuation purposes.

A marine surveyor.

transform Change a mathematical entity by transformation.

She transformed the clay into a beautiful sculpture.

