

Need another word that means the same as "redemption"? Find 34 synonyms and 30 related words for "redemption" in this overview.

Table Of Contents:

- Redemption as a Noun
- Definitions of "Redemption" as a noun
- Synonyms of "Redemption" as a noun (34 Words)
- Usage Examples of "Redemption" as a noun
- Associations of "Redemption" (30 Words)

The synonyms of "Redemption" are: buyback, repurchase, salvation, saving, freeing from sin, saving from sin, vindication, absolution, retrieval, recovery, reclamation, repossession, return, rescue, exchange, swapping, bartering, cashing in, conversion, trade-in, discharge, clearing, squaring, honouring, fulfilment, carrying out, making good, execution, performing, accomplishment, achievement, observance, meeting, adherence to

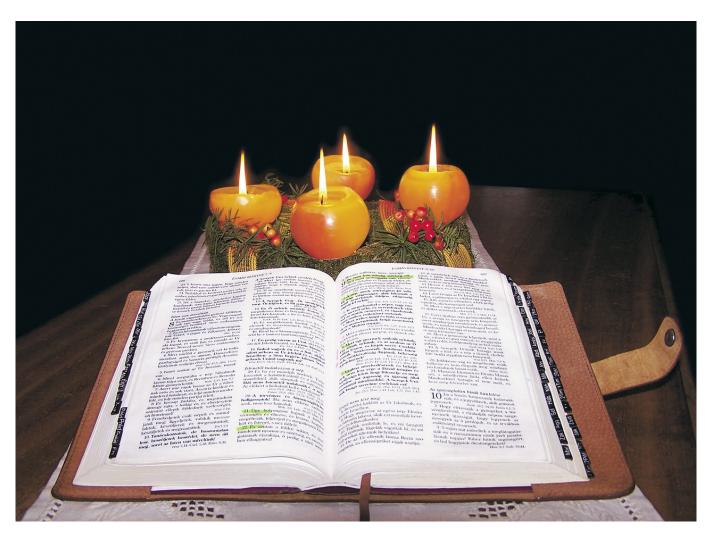

Redemption as a Noun

Definitions of "Redemption" as a noun

According to the Oxford Dictionary of English, "redemption" as a noun can have the following definitions:

- The action of regaining or gaining possession of something in exchange for payment, or clearing a debt.
- The action of saving or being saved from sin, error, or evil.
- The action of buying one's freedom.
- A thing that saves someone from error or evil.
- The act of purchasing back something previously sold.
- Repayment of the principal amount of a debt or security at or before maturity (as when a corporation repurchases its own stock.
- (theology) the act of delivering from sin or saving from evil.
- The act of delivering from sin or saving from evil.

Synonyms of "Redemption" as a noun (34 Words)

The act of absolving or remitting; formal redemption as pronounced by a absolution priest in the sacrament of penance.

She had been granted absolution for her sins.

accomplishment

A part of considerable accomplishment

A poet of considerable accomplishment.

achievement The action of accomplishing something.

The achievement of professional recognition.

adherence to Faithful support for a cause or political party or religion.

bartering An equal exchange.

buyback The act of purchasing back something previously sold.

carrying out The act of carrying something.

cashing in Money in the form of bills or coins.

clearing An open space in a forest, especially one cleared for cultivation.

The fact of changing one's religion or beliefs or the action of persuading conversion someone else to change theirs.

Keeping things simple will improve conversion.

discharge A substance that has been discharged.

A police permit for discharge of an air gun.

A move or short sequence of moves in which both players capture exchange material of comparable value or particularly the exchange in which one captures a rook in return for a knight or bishop.

They provided me with currency exchange at competitive rates.

The completion of a legal instrument (such as a contract or deed) by signing it (and perhaps sealing and delivering it) so that it becomes execution legally binding and enforceable.

They were held captive for two days and threatened with execution.

freeing from sin People who are free.

The act of consummating something (a desire or promise etc.

fulfilment The need to eliminate excess by the security forces in fulfilment of their duties.

honouring A woman's virtue or chastity.

making good

An attribute that must be met or complied with and that fits a person for something.

meeting A formally arranged gathering.

The meeting elected a chairperson.

observance A formal event performed on a special occasion.

He drew up a body of monastic observances.

performing The performance of a part or role in a drama.

reclamation The recovery of useful substances from waste products.

The reclamation of delinquent children.

(in rowing, cycling, or swimming) the action of returning the paddle, leg, recovery or arm to its initial position ready to make a new stroke.

It is hoped that Lawrence can make a full recovery.

The action of regaining possession (especially the seizure of collateral repossession securing a loan that is in default.

Families had been threatened with repossession or eviction.

repurchaseThe act of purchasing back something previously sold.

The repurchase price.

Denoting the emergency excavation of archaeological sites threatened by imminent building or road development.

They have not always been keen to organize rescue excavations to investigate these sites.

retrieval The operation of accessing information from the computer's memory.

My retrieval of people s names is very poor.

return A good rate of return.

A return flight.

A source or means of being saved from harm, ruin, or loss.

Tourism was their economic salvation.

savingThe money one has saved, especially through a bank or official scheme.

There was a saving of 50 cents.

saving from sin The activity of protecting something from loss or danger.

squaring An open area at the meeting of two or more streets.

swapping An equal exchange.

trade-in An item of property that is given in part payment for a new one.

vindication Proof that someone or something is right, reasonable, or justified.

Today's news is a complete vindication for us.

Usage Examples of "Redemption" as a noun

- Soldiers who were captured had to seek redemption.
- God's plans for the redemption of his world.
- His marginalization from the Hollywood jungle proved to be his redemption.
- Serfs began paying redemption dues.
- The peasants found the terms of redemption unattractive.

Associations of "Redemption" (30 Words)

The condition of being formally forgiven by a priest in the sacrament of absolution penance.

baptism

She had been granted absolution for her sins.

absolve Grant remission of a sin to.

She asked the bishop to absolve her sins.

atonement The action of making amends for a wrong or injury. He submitted his resignation as an act of atonement.

The Christian religious rite of sprinkling water on to a person s forehead or of immersing them in water symbolizing purification or regeneration and admission to the Christian Church In many denominations baptism is performed on young children and is accompanied by name giving.

The sacrament of baptism.

christianity The collective body of Christians throughout the world and history (found predominantly in Europe and the Americas and Australia.

contrition Sorrow for sin arising from fear of damnation.

Prayers of contrition.

deliver Bring to a destination make a delivery.

He delivered himself of a sermon.

deliverance Recovery or preservation from loss or danger.

Prayers for deliverance.

economize

Use cautiously and frugally.

I try to economize my spare time.

. Compassionate feelings that support a willingness to forgive.

forgivenessShe is quick to ask forgiveness when she has overstepped the line.

she is quick to ask jorgiveness when she has overstepped the line.

Make someone feel guilty especially in order to induce them to do something.

guilt

He remembered with sudden guilt the letter from his mother that he had not yet read.

lifeboat A specially constructed boat launched from land to rescue people in distress at sea.

lifeguardAn expert swimmer employed to rescue bathers who get into difficulty at a beach or swimming pool.

The feeling that motivates compassion.

Mercy missions to refugees caught up in the fighting.

pardon Grant a pardon to.

The Thanksgiving turkey was pardoned by the President.

penitenceRemorse for your past conduct.

A public display of penitence.

reconciliation The action of making one view or belief compatible with another.

The earl was seeking a reconciliation with his wife.

Free (oneself or another) from slavery or captivity by paying a ransom.

redeem The captive had to mortgage his lands to raise the money to redeem

. 16

himself.

Remorse for your past conduct.

repentance Each person who turns to God in genuine repentance and faith will be saved.

Denoting or relating to a domestic animal that has been removed from a rescue situation of abuse or neglect by a welfare organization.

Firemen rescued a man trapped in the river.

A formal religious ceremony conferring a specific grace on those who receive it; the two Protestant ceremonies are baptism and the Lord's Supper; in the Roman Catholic Church and the Eastern Orthodox Church sacrament there are seven traditional rites accepted as instituted by Jesus: baptism and confirmation and Holy Eucharist and penance and holy orders and matrimony and extreme unction.

He heard Mass and received the sacrament.

The act of saving goods or property that were in danger of damage or salvage destruction.

Surgery resulted in the salvage of damaged myocardium.

The state of being saved or preserved from harm.

They try to sell it to us as economic salvation.

satisfaction The opportunity to defend one's honour in a duel.

I looked round with satisfaction.

Save from sins.

Save it Joey I m in big trouble now.

scrimp

Be thrifty or parsimonious; economize.

I have scrimped and saved to give you a good education.

Sin Commit a sin violate a law of God or a moral law.

He committed the unforgivable sin of refusing to give interviews.

A person who survives, especially a person remaining alive after an event survivor in which others have died.

He was the sole survivor of the massacre.

thrifty
Using money and other resources carefully and not wastefully.

The sheep are vigorous and thrifty.

Tow a ship by means of a tugboat.

She tugged and wrestled with her conflicts.

