

Need another word that means the same as "startup"? Find 1 synonym and 30 related words for "startup" in this overview.

Table Of Contents:

- Startup as a Noun
- Definitions of "Startup" as a noun
- Synonyms of "Startup" as a noun (1 Word)
- Usage Examples of "Startup" as a noun
- Associations of "Startup" (30 Words)

The synonyms of "Startup" are: inauguration

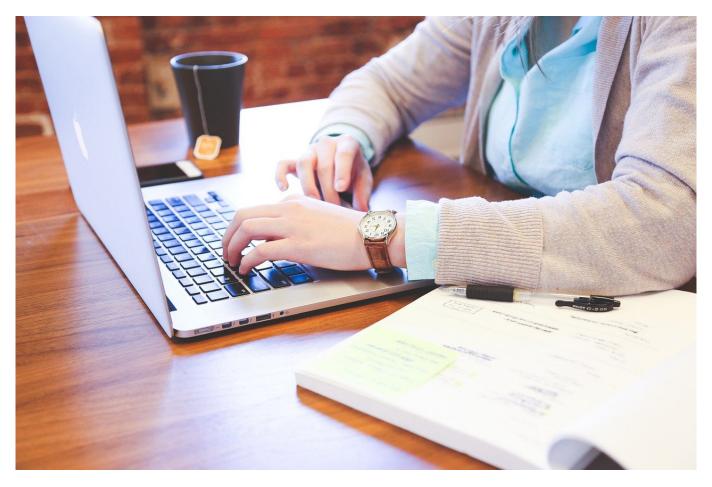

Startup as a Noun

Definitions of "Startup" as a noun

According to the Oxford Dictionary of English, "startup" as a noun can have the following definitions:

- The act of starting a new operation or practice.
- The act of setting in operation.

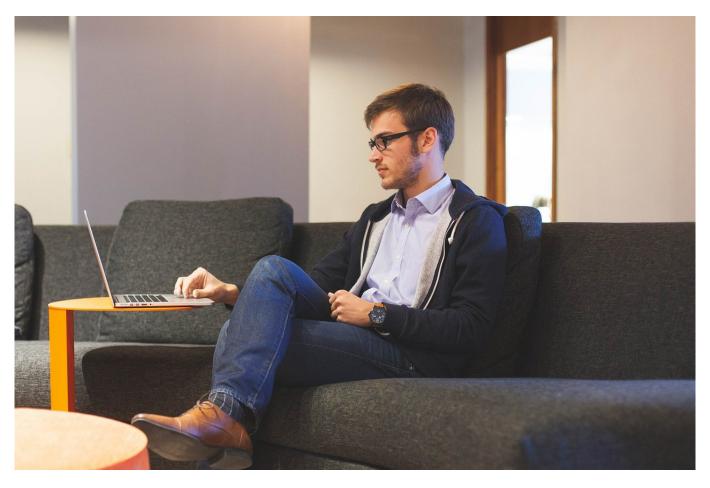

Synonyms of "Startup" as a noun (1 Word)

 $\begin{array}{l} \textbf{inauguration} \ \ \textbf{The ceremonial induction into a position.} \\ \textit{The inauguration of an independent prosecution service.} \end{array}$

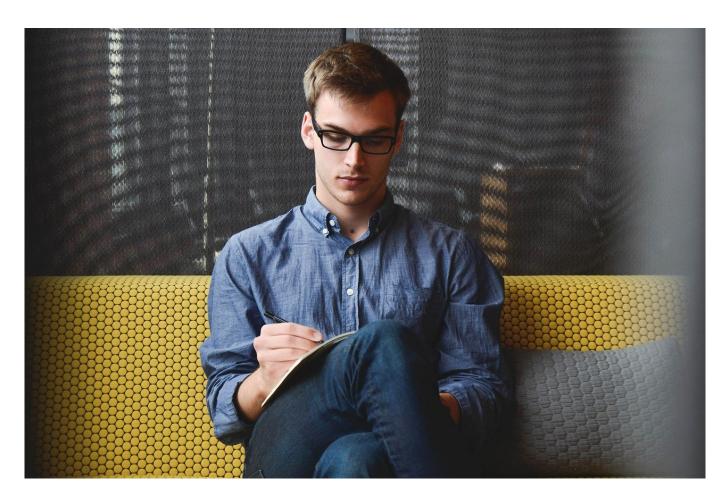

Usage Examples of "Startup" as a noun

- Repeated shutdowns and startups are expensive.
- The startup of the new factory was delayed by strikes.

Associations of "Startup" (30 Words)

Begin to speak or say he began.

begin This economic measure doesn t even begin to deal with the problem of inflation.

beginningThe point in time or space at which something begins.

He had risen from hymble beginnings to great wealth

He had risen from humble beginnings to great wealth.

Any activity that is performed in an especially solemn elaborate or formal ceremony way.

He makes a ceremony of addressing his golf ball.

Emit a sound.

chime The warm breeze whispered through the chimes hanging from the balcony ceiling.

Take the first step or steps in carrying out an action.

His design team commenced work.

commencement The act of starting something.

The date of commencement.

Manage or exploit (an organization, activity, etc.) in a way designed to commercialize make a profit.

Some Amish people have commercialized their way of life.

ding Go ding dong like a bell.

Cash registers were dinging softly.

An address delivered at an inaugural ceremony especially by a United inaugural States president.

His inaugural concert as Music Director.

inaugurate Commence officially.

The museum was inaugurated on September 12.

inauguration The beginning or introduction of a system, policy, or period.

The inauguration of the Modern Art Museum.

Only partly in existence; imperfectly formed.

Incipient civil disorder.

A person who has been initiated into an organization or activity.

They were initiated into the mysteries of mathematics.

initiative Serving to set in motion.

The initiative phase in the negotiations.

intro A brief introductory passage to a piece of popular music.

A light ringing sound such as that made by metal objects being shaken jingle together.

He jingled the coins in his purse.

jutThe act of projecting out from something.

She put up her head and jutted out her chin with determination.

launch Launch for the first time launch on a maiden voyage.

He launched a biting attack on BBC chiefs.

midnight Twelve o'clock at night. The midnight hours.

officially

In a formal and public way.

On June 24 the election campaign will officially begin.

open Of textures full of small openings or gaps.

I m keeping an open mind about my future.

opened Made open or clear.

The newly opened road.

openingThe act of opening something.

The play s opening scene.

outset The start or beginning of something.

The project was flawed from the outset.

The government of the Roman Catholic Church.

A papacy in decline.

Open up a road or terrain as a pioneer.

This South African surgeon pioneered heart transplants.

rocket Attack with rocket propelled missiles.

Sales of milk in supermarkets are rocketing.

Run with the ball in such sports as football.

A shallow run at the edge of a low rock.

start A turn to be a starter in a game at the beginning.

The season starts in September.

Someone who helps to open up a new line of research or technology or trailblazer art.

run

He was a trailblazer for many ideas that are now standard fare.

