

Need another word that means the same as "subvert"? Find 26 synonyms and 30 related words for "subvert" in this overview.

Table Of Contents:

- Subvert as a Verb
- Definitions of "Subvert" as a verb
- Synonyms of "Subvert" as a verb (26 Words)
- Usage Examples of "Subvert" as a verb
- Associations of "Subvert" (30 Words)

The synonyms of "Subvert" are: corrupt, debase, debauch, demoralise, demoralize, deprave, misdirect, pervert, profane, vitiate, bring down, overthrow, overturn, counteract, countermine, sabotage, undermine, weaken, destabilize, unsettle, warp, defile, distort, contaminate, poison, embitter

Subvert as a Verb

Definitions of "Subvert" as a verb

According to the Oxford Dictionary of English, "subvert" as a verb can have the following definitions:

- Corrupt morally or by intemperance or sensuality.
- Destroy completely.
- Destroy property or hinder normal operations.
- Cause the downfall of; of rulers.
- Undermine the power and authority of (an established system or institution.

Synonyms of "Subvert" as a verb (26 Words)

bring down Bring into a different state.

contaminate Make radioactive by adding radioactive material.

Don t drink the water it s contaminated.

corrupt Corrupt morally or by intemperance or sensuality.

The corrupting smell of death.

Oppose or check by a counteraction. counteract

This will counteract the foolish actions of my colleagues.

Dig a countermine against. countermine

We countermined the banks of the river.

Corrupt debase or make impure by adding a foreign or inferior substance debase often by replacing valuable ingredients with inferior ones.

War debases people.

Seduce (a woman. debauch

Debauch the young people with wine and women.

Desecrate or profane (something sacred. defile

He took her behind the building and defiled her.

demoralise Lower someone's spirits; make downhearted.

Corrupt the morals of (someone. demoralize

The bad state of her child s health demoralizes her.

Corrupt morally or by intemperance or sensuality. deprave

This book would deprave and corrupt young children.

Upset the stability of (a region or system); cause unrest or instability in. destabilize

The accused were charged with conspiracy to destabilize the country.

Form into a spiral shape. distort

You re distorting the sound by overdriving the amp.

Make (someone) feel bitter or resentful. embitter

These injustices embittered her even more.

Direct to the wrong place or in the wrong direction. misdirect

Voters were misdirected to the wrong polling station.

Rule against. overthrow

He grips the ball too tight and overthrows it.

Cause to overturn from an upright or normal position. overturn

The big vase overturned.

Practice sophistry; change the meaning of or be vague about in order to mislead or deceive. pervert

He was charged with conspiring to pervert the course of justice.

Administer poison to.

The bombings poisoned the political atmosphere and deepened the social poison divide.

Violate the sacred character of a place or language. profane

Profane the name of God.

Deliberately destroy, damage, or obstruct (something), especially for sabotage political or military advantage.

The Resistance sabotaged railroad operations during the war.

undermine Erode the base or foundation of (a rock formation.

The flow of water had undermined pillars supporting the roof.

unsettle Disturb the composure of.

The crisis has unsettled financial markets.

vitiate Spoil or impair the quality or efficiency of.

Development programmes have been vitiated by the rise in population.

warp

In weaving arrange yarn so as to form the warp of a piece of cloth.

Your judgement has been warped by your obvious dislike of him.

Lessen the strength of.

weaken
The fever weakened his body.

Usage Examples of "Subvert" as a verb

• We must not let our civil liberties be subverted by the current crisis.

• An attempt to subvert democratic government.

Do school counselors subvert young children?

• Subvert the ruling class.

Associations of "Subvert" (30 Words)

banish Drive away.

A number of people were banished to Siberia for political crimes.

communism A form of socialism that abolishes private ownership.

Of words so related that one reverses the relation denoted by the other.

His converse at such seasons was always elevating.

Oppose or check by a counteraction.

counteract Should we deliberately intervene in the climate system to counteract global warming.

A sudden, violent, and illegal seizure of power from a government.

He was overthrown in an army coup.

A fighter in the medieval Crusades.

Crusaders for early detection and treatment of mental illnesses.

defeatAn instance of defeating or being defeated.

A 1 0 defeat by Grimsby.

Force to leave (an office.

depose Every affidavit shall state which of the facts deposed to are within the deponent s knowledge.

destabilize Make unstable.

The discovery of an affair can destabilize a relationship.

diametrical (of opposites) complete; absolute.

Diametrical or opposite points of view.

enfeeble Make weak.

The breakdown in law and order enfeebled the government s authority.

Withstand the force of something.

The mountain climbers had to fend against the ice and snow.

french United States sculptor who created the seated marble figure of Abraham Lincoln in the Lincoln Memorial in Washington D.C. (1850-1931.

A military or political group that rules a country after taking power by junta force.

The country s ruling military junta.

A sudden violent spontaneous occurrence (usually of some undesirable outbreak condition.

The outbreak of hostilities.

overthrow

A score made because the ball has been overthrown.

His throw missed the stumps and went for four overthrows.

An act of overturning something.

overturn

The crowd proceeded to overturn cars and set them on fire.

An unfortunate happening that hinders or impedes; something that is reversal thwarting or frustrating.

A black and white reversal kit.

reverse The gears by which the motion of a machine can be reversed.

A knob to lock the box in four wheel drive for reverse.

Organized opposition to authority; a conflict in which one faction tries to revolt wrest control from another.

The Iceni revolted and had to be suppressed.

revolution A drastic and far-reaching change in ways of thinking and behaving.

One revolution a second.

A radical supporter of political or social revolution.

evolutionary discovery.

revolutionize Change radically.

E mail revolutionized communication in academe.

setback A plain, flat offset in a wall.

A serious setback for the peace process.

Cause to spin.

spin The President's spokesmen had to spin the story to make it less embarrassing.

An act of assuming control of something, especially the buying out of one takeover company by another.

A company threatened with takeover.

Cause to change or turn into something different assume new turn characteristics.

Cover potatoes with sacking to keep the light from turning them green.

undermine Erode the base or foundation of (a rock formation.

This could undermine years of hard work.

upsetThe act of upsetting something.

A legal dispute will cause worry and upset.

Seize and take control without authority and possibly with force; take as usurp one's right or possession.

The Hanoverian dynasty had usurped the Stuarts.