

Need another word that means the same as "waive"? Find 31 synonyms and 30 related words for "waive" in this overview.

Table Of Contents:

- Waive as a Verb
- Definitions of "Waive" as a verb
- Synonyms of "Waive" as a verb (31 Words)
- Usage Examples of "Waive" as a verb
- Associations of "Waive" (30 Words)

The synonyms of "Waive" are: dispense with, forego, foreswear, forgo, relinquish, forfeit, give up, throw overboard, renounce, abandon, reject, surrender, yield, cede, do without, put aside, set aside, abdicate, abjure, sacrifice, refuse, turn down, spurn, sign away, disregard, ignore, overlook, drop, omit, cast aside, brush aside

Waive as a Verb

Definitions of "Waive" as a verb

According to the Oxford Dictionary of English, "waive" as a verb can have the following definitions:

- Refrain from demanding compliance with (a rule or fee.
- Do without or cease to hold or adhere to.
- Lose (s.th.) or lose the right to (s.th.) by some error, offense, or crime.
- Refrain from insisting on or using (a right or claim.

Synonyms of "Waive" as a verb (31 Words)

abandon Cease to support or look after (someone); desert.

We abandoned the old car in the empty parking lot.

abdicate (of a monarch) renounce one's throne.

Ferdinand abdicated the throne in favour of the emperor s brother.

Formally reject or disavow a formerly held belief, usually under abjure pressure.

She abjured her beliefs.

brush aside Rub with a brush, or as if with a brush.

cast aside Put or send forth.

cede Give up (power or territory.

In 1874 the islands were ceded to Britain.

dispense with Administer or bestow, as in small portions.

Bar from attention or consideration.

The body of evidence is too substantial to disregard.

do without Get (something) done.

Score a goal by a drop kick.

Tourism has drop ped off in the last few years.

forego Do without or cease to hold or adhere to.

foreswear Turn away from; give up.

I am foreswearing women forever.

Lose or be deprived of (property or a right or privilege) as a penalty for forfeit wrongdoing.

You ve forfeited your right to name your successor.

Lose (s.th.) or lose the right to (s.th.) by some error, offense, or crime.

We forgo any comparison between the two men.

give up Endure the loss of.

ignoreBe ignorant of or in the dark about.

He ignored her outraged question.

Leave out or exclude (someone or something), either intentionally or omit forgetfully.

He modestly omits to mention that he was a pole vault champion.

overlook (of a place) be open to view and so lack privacy.

They told them they were overlooked by some unlucky Person.

put aside Cause (someone) to undergo something.

refuse Refuse entrance or membership.

Her horse refused a high hedge.

reject Reject with contempt.

Union negotiators rejected a 1 5 per cent pay award.

relinquish Part with a possession or right.

He relinquished his managerial role to become chief executive.

Formally declare one's abandonment of (a claim, right, or possession.

renounce

He renounced alcohol completely.

Make a sacrifice of in religious rituals.

He sacrificed his queen on the 34th move.

set aside Give a fine, sharp edge to a knife or razor.

sign away Place signs, as along a road.

spurn

Strike, tread, or push away with the foot.

She spurned his advances.

(of a person assured) cancel (a life insurance policy) and receive back a surrender proportion of the premiums paid.

In 1815 Denmark surrendered Norway to Sweden.

throw overboard Move violently, energetically, or carelessly.

turn down Change color.

vield Concede (a point of dispute.

Such investments yield direct cash returns.

Usage Examples of "Waive" as a verb

• Her tuition fees would be waived.

• He will waive all rights to the money.

Associations of "Waive" (30 Words)

abandon A feeling of extreme emotional intensity.

She sings and sways with total abandon.

abandonment Withdrawing support or help despite allegiance or responsibility.

She had a feeling of utter abandonment and loneliness.

Give up, such as power, as of monarchs and emperors, or duties and abdicate obligations.

In 1918 Kaiser Wilhelm abdicated as German emperor.

abeyant Inactive but capable of becoming active.

abjure Formally reject or disavow a formerly held belief, usually under pressure.

MPs were urged to abjure their Jacobite allegiance.

abstain Choose not to consume.

Most pregnant women abstain or drink very little.

analgesia The inability to feel pain.

She was able to take analgesia orally.

A notation cancelling a previous sharp or flat.

Cancelling stamps on registered mail.

Give over; surrender or relinquish to the physical control of another.

In 1874 the islands were ceded to Britain.

choice (especially of food) of very good quality.

He picked some choice early plums.

Appropriate (something, especially land) to the public treasury as a confiscate penalty.

The government confiscated his property early in the war.

The shameful failure to fulfil one's obligations.

dereliction The prosecution team were quilty of dereliction of duty for failing to disclose evidence.

disavowDeny any responsibility or support for.

Her husband disavowed her after 30 years of marriage and six children.

disown Prevent deliberately (as by making a will) from inheriting.

Lovell s rich family had disowned him because of his marriage.

foreswear Turn away from; give up.

I am foreswearing women forever.

The action of forfeiting something.

She didn t mind forfeiting an hour in bed to muck out the horses.

Be earlier in time; go back further.

We forgo any comparison between the two men.

Renounce or give up (something valued or pleasant.

He would never forsake Tara.

forswear Agree to give up or do without.

I swore that I would lead us safely home and I do not mean to be forsworn.

quit Give up in the face of defeat of lacking hope; admit defeat.

She quit her job in a pizza restaurant.

recant Formally reject or disavow a formerly held belief, usually under pressure.

Heretics were burned if they would not recant.

relinquish Part with a possession or right.

I am relinguishing my bedroom to the long term house guest.

Leave (a job, post, or position) voluntarily.

renounce

Isabella offered to renounce her son s claim to the French Crown.

The formal rejection of something, typically a belief, claim, or course of renunciation action.

The life of the Spirit required renunciation of marriage.

repudiate Refuse to acknowledge, ratify, or recognize as valid.

The woman repudiated the divorce settlement.

Part with a possession or right.

resign

He vows to resign himself to her direction.

retract (of an animal) draw (a part of itself) back into its body.

He retracted his allegations.

The action of surrendering to an opponent or powerful influence.

In 1815 Denmark surrendered Norway to Sweden.

Withdraw from active participation.

withdraw Patients were withdrawn from therapy when they had been depression free for a month.

yield Cause to happen or be responsible for.

He reeled into the house as the door yielded.