

Need another word that means the same as "wind down"? Find 30 related words for "wind down" in this overview.

Table Of Contents:

• Associations of "Wind down" (30 Words)

Associations of "Wind down" (30 Words)

beneath Extending or directly underneath something.

Upper layers can be removed to reveal internal parts beneath.

Terminate or abbreviate before its intended or proper end or its full extent.

Curtail drinking in school.

Corrupt debase or make impure by adding a foreign or inferior substance debase often by replacing valuable ingredients with inferior ones.

War debases people.

The inflection of nouns and pronouns and adjectives in Indo-European declension languages.

The declension of the new generation.

declivity A downward slope or bend.

A thickly wooded declivity.

decrease Decrease in size extent or range.

The population of the area has decreased radically.

demoralize Cause (someone) to lose confidence or hope.

The General Strike had demoralized the trade unions.

depletion Reduction in the number or quantity of something.

The depletion of the ozone layer.

Be a blood relative of (a specified ancestor.

descend The chords descended in spectacular style from the upper register to the lower.

descending (of sound) becoming lower in pitch.

The categories are listed in descending order of usefulness.

descent A movement downward.

The plane had gone into a steep descent.

diminution A reduction in the size, extent, or importance of something.

The disease shows no signs of diminution.

downdraft A strong downward air current.

A worsening of business or economic activity.

downturnA downturn in the housing market.

downward Spatially or metaphorically from a higher to a lower level or position.

He lay face downward.

dropLet or cause to fall in drops.

The spoon dropped with a clatter from her hand.

fall A thing which falls or has fallen.

All that falls under the general heading of corruption.

Moving from a higher to a lower level, typically rapidly and without control.

Falling standards.

A flight in a glider or unpowered aircraft.

A few gondolas glided past.

A low point level or figure.

The sun is low.

The lower of two berths.

Flora stuck out her lower lip.

reduction The amount by which something is made smaller, less, or lower in price.

Special reductions on knitwear.

rotary A rotary machine engine or device.

A rotary mower.

rundown An analysis or summary of something by a knowledgeable person.

He gave his teammates a rundown on the opposition.

sink Cause to sink.

The players were sinking a few post match lagers.

The process or state of being submerged in or covered with water.

submergence Total submergence of plants results in heavy crop losses.

Any stratum or layer lying underneath another.

substrate

The Celtic languages of Britain are a substrate for English.

. Under water.

water.

Weaving the body through the crossbars over and under over and under.

vane A fin attached to the tail of an arrow, bomb or missile in order to stabilize or guide it.

vertically

In a way that involves different levels or stages of a hierarchy or process.

Vertically stacked books.

